There are no after credit spoilers. There was 1 cut before the credits but nothing after.

Sir-Teabag - May 20, 2018, 3:01 am

Just watched it last night. I found it quite depressing and pretty funny at the same time.

Fucking annoyed me about the two post-credit scenes. By the time the second one was up half the cinema had left lol

Well they fixed whatshisface's watch thing, and gave it to deadpool. He kept going back in time and doing funny shit like killing the creator of Green lantern, killing someone from Wolverine, and killing more people.

And I can't remember what was in the other one lol blackcoder00 - May 20, 2018, 6:07 am

They* fixed 'Cables' teleporter for Deadpool (in hopes it would piss off Cable and hurt DP). He went back in time to kill *Ryan Reynolds who is Deadpool and who also played Green Lantern in that horrible CGI shitshow, He also killed the other version of Deadpool from Xmen origins of Wolverine just before Wolverine fought him, Saved Peter W and his girlfriend as well as a few other things.

I feel like all these people jumping on the train now for DP have 0 knowledge of any film outside that in either Marvel or DC. DP is all about the references, how do people enjoy it without understanding them.

Fuck you mean "(in hopes it would piss off Cable and hurt DP)"?? They were friends at the end bit. Did you even watch it?

THEY ONLY HELPED DEADPOOL FIX CABLES TELEPORTER TO PISS CABLE OFF AND MAKE DEADPOOL PAY AT THE HANDS OF HIM.

Fuck you mean did you even watch it - are you even a fucking attentive movie goer?

colonel.mortimer - May 21, 2018, 6:24 am

Hit the nail on the head, I get tired of people who talk nonsense about Marvel and DC without looking into the history outside the movies.....

um no lol you're retarded. If they weren't friends at the end then why would Cable use his last teleportation thing to save Deadpools life?

Holy autism.

Negasonic fixes the watch for DP - not because she is his friend but because she knows it will piss off Cable.

Why does she want to piss off Cable? Because DP will be at fault and to blame - meaning Cable will take it out on him.
