Thread: LEARN 2 LOCKPICK | INCLUDES 50 MINUTE FREE VIDEO | PAYPAL & BTC | EASY TO LEARN

licker98 - May 17, 2018, 2:31 pm

Lockpicking is a great skill to have. If you ever get locked out of your house and you're without your keys, having your lockpicking set is invaluable. Moreover, if one of your friends needs access to their shed and they've lost their key, with the knowledge from my book, you will be able to open it for them! Your lockpick skill is sure to increase to 100 in no time at all...

My book covers in-depth:

Front/back door locks and door locks

Filing cabinet/locker locks

Car locks

Window locks

Pad locks

Different techniques for each different type of lock

Specs on different lock picks

General tips and tricks

Tips for padlock buyers

Keys

Locks for training yourself and improving your skills

Making your own tools

My own personal tricks for opening stubborn locks

The information included in the book has been written in a clear, concise, and simple way to reduce reading time and increase understanding. After all, no one really wants to read 100+ pages of information when learning a new skill!

This ebook also includes a free 50 minute video information tutorial, which covers almost every lock you will come across and will give you an animated representation of the inner workings of a lock.

The book includes detailed lockpicking methods and also contains illustrations and annotated images.

YouTube doesn't have my experiences though.

Have you ever broken the law doing this? (You don't have to answer if you don't want, just seems interesting.)

I might actually go for this product. Seems like this could be a cool skill to have.

No, I just do it as a hobby. ?

But in case you're wondering, you would easily be able to break into someone's house, provided you had the knowledge from the book as well as practice. I wouldn't risk it though...

Will I need to buy some tools from eBay or Amazon or I can make homemade tools?

You can use stuff that you make yourself, but if you're new and don't know about the varieties of lock picks and why they are made the way they are, then you should buy a set. But don't buy any sort of training set from amazon/Ebay because you'll just end up buying another set, as soon as you realise how awful the training ones are (which is what I did ???).

How much does a set cost?

It depends on how big a set you buy. Mine cost around £36 for a 22 piece set, but you can buy cheaper sets which have less picks.

How does that ebook makes a difference from "other" ebooks/video tutorial about "Lockpicking" ?

No lockpicker has the same experiences as the other. My experience has taught me things that others may not know about.
