nothing just saw that it was only for l33t and ub3r accounts btw i edited the original post so if youre wondering why im just posting "nothing just saw that it was only for l33t and ub3r accs"

Gangin' - May 22, 2018, 10:39 am

What information is required for you to upgrade the account? For example, if I am uncomfortable giving you the password for my personal account. Also, does it have to be a fresh account, or could I use the spotify account Ive been using for like 5 years now?

Thanks OP

Thanks OP

It's easier for me to do it on a fresh account because the country and zip codes have to match.
send me your email and country I won't need your password
