Thread: Adult Media Mentorship

Korvo - May 19, 2018, 5:17 pm

Red Room Media is moving into a better direction with CPA & Crypto trading.

Thank you everyone who joined and supported! Everyone who did purchase still has access to the place where materials are at and will still be helped out as requested. Special request to join the mentorship will be considered, but it will be a one on one basis. If you'd like any info just send a PM!

This may be opened back up in the future, but as of now as I mentioned things are moving into other directions.

"C'est la vie"

Damn $3000 a week GUARANTEED, I cannot believ it!

REEEEERRRE - May 19, 2018, 5:24 pm

Looks good! Wish you the best with sales :)

Watchman. - May 19, 2018, 5:27 pm

I am the Watchman that is known in the title. I've been eWhoring for a long time now and have perfected it, I'd say. I routinely get around $10,000 a month, and the screenshot shown is of my earnings. That is since late March.

If there are any questions, do let me know.

Thread does say "Using our methods we make $3000 /wk" sort of implying we could too but even $1k is pretty good coin.

Oh yes, definitely. I make $3k a week pretty reliably. The guarantee is $1,000, and the methods detail everything necessary to get to the proper $3,000, but it will take work!

Awesome, Im very interested have there been any reviews of this yet?

itsMeCherry - May 19, 2018, 5:52 pm

You say guarantee. So that suggests if it doesnt work you will refund?

?Skwiid - May 19, 2018, 5:52 pm

I have received a Vouch Copy/Trial of this membership. I am in multiple discords with Watchman and I can confirm that the amount stated in this thread is minuscule compared to what he actually makes. He has given me a lot of tips in the past which have helped boost my earnings.

Mainly this mentorship taught me the keys to getting the best adult traffic possible for eWhoring. From my prior experience, I can say that traffic is the most important aspect of it all, and Watchman definitely provides it.

I honestly believe that this mentorship is being sold for a price that doesn't compare to how much you will gain from it.

An offer like this should not be passed up, and you would probably make back the money you spent on this membership in a day after you have gone through the whole thing.

Vouch worth the money, includes every possible way to make money ewhoring

Watchman. - May 22, 2018, 10:54 pm

The solutions we can offer to people who are skeptical are as follows:

- Joining the server and talking / verifying yourself with the people. You will not be able to view the material til paid, but this will allow you to verify on your own.
- Middleman til you make your money back, but likely at a higher cost (as to accommodate for the wait time)

I've messaged you. I'm fine with using a MM, I did charge a higher rate for that, and my stipulations were a bit different as to ensure security for both of us. Mostly just verification of pursuit of methods and that is will be released upon your approval, vouches of others for the short-term expectations, or you making the cost of it back.

I know both of them personally. Really great eWhores making bank. I am doing myself great, but if I wasn't cheap af and saving for university, I would get this without any hesitation. This will help you make your money back in matter of days.

SSSDave1987 - May 30, 2018, 8:59 pm

I'm here to vouch and give a detailed review for both these fellas ?

To start with I was under mentorship of Nola aka watchman for about 1 month plus or more when I coincidentally met him on a discord server finding for new ways to push my ewhorring earnings.

I was in HF ewhorring threads and had most of the ebooks, most gave me an idea on how to expand on my own methods but none of the ebooks gave me step2step guide on how get on this the right proven working ways. Most these methods of e-books sold mainly are recycled from old HF/ewhorring methods got from elsewhere which are either not working anymore, you need to put your own twist on it or worst some had steps are missed out which makes implementation of the methods hard. Worst of all is some sellers are not established/currently ewhorring that they can't mentor you properly or provide you with details cause they're in it in the first place. ?

What makes Gambit and nola's mentorship worth your money is simply;

1. They are currently actively ewhorring, while running this mentorship. Not like those sellers I mentioned above. ?
2. They have methods to scale up in various ways as they are actively earnings huge bucks on a daily basis.
3. It's not all about the guide from ebooks, I've seen in all, I don't even waste time looking through the treads anymore. Anyone could make one. What makes these fellas different is they have a HQ server and a community for all your Q&As.

4. I wish I have have found them earlier, but in reality is I found HF through extremely digging of the net for internet marketing/money making methods. I found watchman through my research for proper ewhorring methods

5. To be honest, I don't want to be that guy who throw in fake vouch in HF for the sake of it. The methods of theirs require effort and time, just like any legit money making method. If you want a fake methods that says it gives $500 in 15 minutes of work. This is NOT it.

6. Even robbing a fucking bank takes effort, planning and execution and thats the same for any white/grey/black hat method for that purpose. And if I have a working method that makes me 500$ in 15 minutes, I'm not gonna sell it on a nopen forum for a ANY PRICE. It doesn't make sense. Would you sell it? ?

I have invested on many money making methods/ewhorring ebooks, this this in my opinion worth spending considering the after sales service/mentorship which you get. And I would like to stress this like any legit internet marketing/money making method, it REQUIRES EFFORT and TIME. ?

He did put in about 7-8 hours of work, but was wildy successful. If you put in hard work..serious effort you'll pull in bank. Now this isn't probably going to be an everyday earnings, but this shows the potential with our mentoring.

Huge vouch for these two. Ghost and Watchman are my boys.

Watchman took me under his wing a few months back when I was fighting to bring in $100-$150 consistently on Kik. That quickly changed. I can now bring in an easy $250-$350 consistently using a handful of his methods. There are some that other members of the group swear by that I still haven't touched. So I'm sure you could bring in close to what he does himself if you went hard.

The best part is that I'm not a paying customer. You could say I received a vouch copy. Watchman and I just clicked and he decided to mentor me one day back in March.

Once I started to apply what he taught me to my first Snap run in May, I seen a significant increase from $700 a week. I brought in just over $1,500 that first week.

I don't know exactly how much he makes, but I know that during my most successful week I brought in $2,700. He congratulated me for being close to matching his earnings that week.

If you're around long enough then you'll eventually see his Rocketr stats at some point. The guy isn't full of it. He clears $18,000 in a month. I don't understand how... But he does.

His promise is that he can teach you to make at least $1,000 a week. Don't get caught up in how much he makes in comparison to your own earnings like I did. It's a good motivator, don't get me wrong, but when you get greedy you get stressed. And when you get stressed you'll limit yourself.

$1,000 a week is easy money with these guys and you don't even have to stress about it.

Watchman. - August 6, 2018, 4:18 pm

Happy people :) We'll be gearing this towards legitimate incomes soon. I will be making it into a CPA based server as well, as I have had much success with it.

Investment required? Autopilot eventually? How many hours daily would I need to invest in terms of time to maintain this?

- 1: No, but later on you'll be reinvesting.
- 2: Not fully, but extremely low maintenance after a while.
- 3: 1-2 after a couple days of 5-6. Literally nothing bad.
