Thread: Some asshole gave me shit for drinking Red Bull.

Mr. Robot - May 20, 2018, 3:45 pm

Sorry but Red Bull is the best 'energy drink' out, this guy who represents Rockstar drinks was dropping off some signs or some crap promoting the drink to a shop and saw me with 4x 500ml red bull cans and was like, you shouldn't drink that crap, try this instead and gave me one.

Thanks for the free drink, my partner likes these but fuck you for talking shit about my Red Bull.

Ps. He noticed my HF tattoo so if you see this, screw you. Your drink might be cheaper but it's garbage.

itsMeCherry - May 20, 2018, 3:48 pm

Redbull is just expensive lol

Eccy - May 20, 2018, 3:48 pm

Should've gave him a Red Bull and said "you shouldn't drink that crap, try this instead"

$3.45 USD for 500ml from gas station,
$2.42 USD for 500ml from supermarket.

Tbh I prefer the Mt Dew Amp or w/e it's called

Who Soup - May 20, 2018, 3:52 pm

you should have said sorry cheep piss water won't give you wings.

Nyx- - May 20, 2018, 4:04 pm energy drinks are bad for you guys cmon ?

Bob White - May 20, 2018, 4:07 pm

I walked by the NOS guys today restocking a store and they gave me a few free ones. Still love red bull.

Scriph - May 20, 2018, 4:08 pm

Liquid Ice > Red Bull

Rockstar sucks ass.

Generally I mix up five hour energy and club soda maybe a flavor packet.

Or ill drink Venom

Monster is good sometimes

For me rn it's mixt energy and flavor packets.

My all time favorite is either Monster Dragon Fruit or Full Throttle Blue agave
After that is any liquid ice. Like flavored squirt

I know, that's sad. Isn't it? Listen, in 3 years of being on this site.. You've spent nearly one year of your life browsing this forum.

Ye I have a lot of time spent here but I was 15 when I got those hours. Not an adult virgin fag, drinks redbull, and has tattoos of a hacking forum who makes the internet his life.

He doesn't post where, he doesn't kiss everyone's ass, like you do day in day out. He owns the forum, doesn't give a single fuck about you, and actually makes money in doing so.

Within roughly 3 years you manage to make 30k posts, while Omni has own the forum for how long now? And a good percentage of his posts are automated. While you, hand type all your posts, use HIS forum to make money, whore yourself all over the forum(just look at your awards man). Also, Omni actually has a family, and supports his family with all the money you put into his forum. While you make dogshit compared to him.

Ok but I still had to laugh at boobiez.

I make more money than Omni does from his forum... That's sorta the difference. Yes I use HIS platform, I have also donated $5,000 at least and I mean, I get to sit on a computer and run my own hours without any obligations to anyone?

How do you know you make more money than Omni? You probably don't, because he doesn't brag about dumb shit online. I feel like you would be the person to have a temper tantrum the moment your internet goes out. How many pounds are you overweight? Sitting on a computer all day long cannot be healthy for you. Technically you spent an entire year of your life sitting on HF posting, and whoring for awards. Can't be all that much better considering your shit taste in drinks.

What are you on about?

We have Monster here too, although I wish we didn't because it's literally undrinkable.

RedBull is the way to go. Personally I also like Powerking as it's similar to RedBull but has more of a kick and is a bit more sour, but it's impossible to find outside of Northern Europe.

Monster Energy exists in: Sweden, Norway, Finland, Denmark, United Kingdom, Belgium, Netherlands, Spain, France and certainly many more, but I couldn't be arsed to continue searching.

What country are you in that Monster energy does not exist?
They sponsor pretty much every major motor sport event around here, it's almost impossible to NOT find it.
