This video is amazing, honestly and its very well made, makes me think and i hope people will take this video serious and think about their actions and how it can affect the rest of the humans on planet earth. People need to open up their eyes, we are slowly making progress but not good enough, people who put out videos like this are the same people that take the car to their job, etc...

I don't think the world will ever change, I believe that it will work like this forever.

What you can do is, talk to people about this video and share your ideas of how to save the planet, by doing that you are plantin a seed.

The world will change, whether it's bad or good, none know's but it will change, since there will always be new trends. I think it's up to well known people to take care of their spot and actually promote saving the world, then kids will hop on that trend as well. We also have to think about to be very critic of they way we see reality, since most news media's dont care if their news are false or acurite, they just care to get it out there for people to see it. "If you don't read the newspaper, you're uninformed. If you read the newspaper, you're mis-informed" the world CAN'T be like this for ever.

Time to wake up, people.

Nice quote, consider it stolen.
