Thread: Stat Instagram | 43k+ followers | FOR SALE \(QUICK SELL\)

@un.saidtruth*

Hint: Sss

I was sharing this account with a girl but something happened between us and we stopped talking. That's the reason this account is for sale. Sadly, she created the account which means I don't have the OG email.

But she is not able to recover it back though.

Account has 43k+ followers and grows daily. Offer me!

She told me to keep it after we ended contacting each other. She isn't going to pull it back as she doesn't know much about instagram, also I am the only one that grewed the account by shouting it out with my bigger page etc, just because she created the account doesn't mean it's hers as she barely even used it
