Decscription

Having Seen soo much posts and good reviews about this User, I trusted him

He promised a Coaching and a software to automate the process, but delivered something totally unworthy.

Now he is Not responding

I just hope the Mods/Admin would remove him off this Reputable Forum

Else he would keep Scamming everyone. (like - <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5838850>)

Sadly, the Thread was made after I made the purchase, I am posting this one too to make sure the Admin/Mods remove him.

Despite the previous user being scammed, I don't understand why the User is Not banned and His Threads removed.

I saw the User's reputation and the Admin mentioned he would remove the User if Another Warning Arises.

Am sure this User has scammed many and yet still would, and many are Shy to speak Up

I hope the Admin removes him from this forum.

Everything about him is FAKE.

I believe that being affected and Not Speaking up, would Justify and Encourage the Affector's Act.

And hope the Concerned persons would take the appropriate action

Thank you!

He scammed me like 7-8 months ago for a pack he was selling but he wasn't punished at all and it was all forgotten lol.

Definitely a scammer and immature person overall

Just so you know, that link takes you to the main index not the user's profile.

He's been shady for a long time. Sorry for your loss.

Why do people deal with members on this site who have an OPEN scam report?

blackbeard.hacks - May 23, 2018, 7:52 pm

He scammed me. Glad to see people do something about it. People come here to learn and interact with each other... That cant happens when people like FireNice and ripping newbies off.

Too lazy to look at their rep or search UID or just an airhead. I'll go with the latter.
