Thread: [Nobility \[3891397\] Multi-Accounter](#)

Doesn't even feel like he's trying to hide anymore, lmao. This is his third or fourth account.

Myself and ra1d used to play H1Z1 back on his old account, where we learned his name was Raymond (this important piece of information comes into play later).

We'll start off with the similarities in his thread, upon his Hydraxus account getting closed, I knew to look out for any similar branding or designing threads.

Thank you, Maxim, for the screenshots, I'm on Raymond's ignore list after I called him out so this came in handy.

And then the reputation..

After calling the user out on a thread, a very kind user decided to PM me saying that Nobility was indeed who I suspected, as he'd received a PayPal payment from Nobility, under the first name "Raymond", hahahaha. I will either get said user to post here to confirm or I'll post an image to show this.

Although he doesn't appear to be breaking any rules on his current account, he's still a multi who got closed for a reason, and I cannot be certain, but I believe his account before Hydraxus was a known scammer.

Caliban - May 24, 2018, 6:49 am

Your evidence is pretty weak, also kind of a low move of your friend to leak his PayPal name, i dont think that should be shared with other members (but not sure if there is a rule)

Neodraxis - May 24, 2018, 6:50 am

Your similarities on this thread is:

1. Exposing private information which I do not condone.
- And 2. Taking information regarding my thread title essentially.

You've PMed me twice attempting to harass me (will post more proof later) and negged me for being a multi with absolutely no proof.

Your first name is not private, which is the only thing I've posted. It's been thrown around all of your accounts.

Please respond to the part about the PayPal payment too.

Hardly. You don't think it's slightly coincidental that shortly after Hydraxus is closed, another account pops up with the same sort of threads and rep-begging? And then the PayPal payment basically confirms it.

Not to mention that two mentors also spotted this and neg'd him, BECAUSE IT'S SO OBVIOUS.

V For Vendetta - May 24, 2018, 6:58 am

Lmao this is weak proof, half of HF says green apples for rep and its just because 2 users have a gfx thread doesn't mean they're a multi and Raymond is a fairly common name. Close this before you embarrass yourself even more

Knife? - May 24, 2018, 7:07 am

I wasn't planning on getting involved with this. I am cool with Nobility and Vanilla.
I noticed Nobility and Vanilla arguing on a thread.

Which then Nobility had said this:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

This makes me wonder why would Nobility act dumb about the name "Raymond" as if he never heard about it.

I can confirm, the payment that was sent to me on PayPal was from the first name: Raymond.
I will not post his second name because of Nobility's safety, I also didn't give Vanilla his full name, it's a dick move from me.

Also NOTE: Vanilla called Nobility Raymond before I had even told him about the name that was sent to me so I did not disclose any private information about a buyer of mine.

Nobility has been a cool guy with me since he signed up so I am not going to be on this case.
I am just posting whatever Vanilla suggested I should.

Good luck with this Vanilla.

I hope you're also not a Ban Evader Nobility, you're a good guy.

The fact is, I keep my private information private online.

There is no reason you or Vanilla should be spreading my personal information.

This thread proves absolutely nothing and Vanilla's intentions are simply to harass me for his own personal vendetta against some other user.

Will post proof once I'm on my computer.

Well, brother. Myself and ra1d always used to call you Raymond when we played H1, so why would I call you anything different? YOU TOLD US YOUR NAME, so get the fuck out.

Nobility nobody has leaked any names.

We haven't publicly posted your full name or email address and we're not planning to do it.

Your information isn't private if it clearly shows it on your PayPal email, that's having money sent across the forum for different people.

Interesting find.

Good work Vanilla.

I have read all four pages of this thread and have found it quite odd for a new member (N?bility) with an account age of only 10 days grow so rapidly with all the donations and awards/Reps.

Most new members take time to learn how Hack Forums Works.
However N?bility figured out the ropes on his first day.

It took me almost a full year to learn how to grow with Hack Fourm.
It's only taken N?bility 10 days?

@N?bility if all the information/evidence shown is in fact true?
Take it from someone that has been on the receiving end of a call out.
You will not win this battle and it will only get worse before it gets any better.

Your name isn't "private information". Anyone can find someone's first name, especially when they actively tell it to people..

If you didn't want people knowing your first name, shouldn't have told them it and shouldn't be using a Paypal that has it listed.

Omni's take on doxing is below:

Quote:Why are some of you saying "no doxing allowed"?

I'd like to see where I make that statement anywhere on HF or in the Help Docs.

We have 2 rules that MIGHT be confusing some of you.

5. No posting of personal information that isn't yours. Privacy is to be respected here. This includes any passwords, logins or dumps. (however obtaining that data isn't mentioned)

2. Members are not allowed to engage in threatening behavior toward other members. This includes flaming. Also threats to steal accounts, dox, or swat. This includes any on-site material such as posts, PMs, or profiles.

Now I can almost see where that second rule might be the cause of some confusion. The spirit of that policy is to prevent people harassing and threatening members. In OPs situation he's trying to settle a deal dispute by calling the parents. That seems like a legitimate and possibly even appropriate thing to do.

Most of the time members threatening with statements like "I'm gonna dox you and have your door knocked down" which is clearly a threat.

I don't see how anyone thinks in the the pursuit of getting a refund after being scammed wouldn't include getting a dox.

His only responses were about his information being leaked and harassment, both of which are false.

If you've got nothing to hide then why deter from the questions being asked? It's so obvious..

He read more of the evidence and now sees Nobility for what he is, a scamming multi.

I added his Discord and once I revealed who I was, he stopped replying.

The kid is a joke.

VirtualFrost - May 27, 2018, 6:35 pm

I think that there are some legitimate coincidences between the two accounts, both offered a Graphics service with "Branding" in the title, local times on both accounts are only 1 hour apart, both have an interest in health and graphics (threads posting about health), you both have an interest in 'Nobility' (the other account was looking for an OG Snapchat username around kings/lords/princes) and your avatar shows this interest, your current graphics service doesn't have a portfolio which I rarely see any graphics artists do unless they cannot have their work linked to another account. However, I think if you were a multi Omni would clearly know considering he replied on your thread saying he cannot wait to see what you do and he never does that and I doubt he has an issue if that was the case.

I'm not sure why the other account is banned, but it'd be silly to say there's nothing close about the two accounts. This is just my unwanted two cents and I can understand the reasoning how the two can be linked.

Vanderbilt - May 27, 2018, 6:49 pm

Any proof about the raymond thing. Apparently Me and omni played fortnite and this kid we knew named vanilla who got banned made an account called Vanilla. has the same first name of the other person so hes a multi?

Well, I didn't see any obvious proof. I'm obviously neutral in the whole thing, but the proof in OP is good that it is out there and highlighted. But, this thread has definitely turned into more than just what OP is about, and the person in question is not going to respond to this, so there's really nothing happening from keeping this up other than drama TBH.
