Thread: Made 300\$ under 30 minutes

Milf - May 25, 2018, 10:52 am

The title says it all, I made 300$ a dollar in under a day by 1 hour of work.

I basically was given a direct order, manipulate and misplace the trust the relationship between the previous girlfriend's current boyfriend and her. The customer told me that the directed hits was not active members of social media, so faking messages wasn't that easy. I had to personally call the girlfriend pretending I'm the boyfriend of a chick that "fucked" him. I fabricated a lie, made it look clean and professional. She believed the lie and began questioning their love for each other. And the worst part is, that they were NEVER EVER APART FROM EACH OTHER. It was difficult af, but I made it eventually and it turned out profitably. It took me about an hour of work, yeah.

Thanks mate ? ? ?

It was extremely difficult but everything was planned heads-on... I had it visualized in my brain like a master plan and I paid it off to buy som good khush so I'm happy and stoned af right now. I'm a well functioning sociopath, so I know my ways around a human. It was extremely delightful to manipulate the shit, out of her. And she told me spesifically would've known if someone was faking the story. I giggled a little and went on. She started crying for 30 mins and believed the whole story. They work at the same hospital, dorm and room. This was no easy task, you'd have to have extreme skill and knowledge. I acquired the task and finished it, nuff said. And I even gave a 100% Moneyback Guarantee. That's confidence, skill and extreme mental capabilities.

Thanks, I know it was wrong of me. But the girl kinda deserved it, she shared personal and sensitive information about her x-boyfriend (telling me) all his secret and personal information. It wasn't the right thing to do, but with some simple social engineering and a little bit of psychological manipulation it was well deserved.

Money is money. I personally think it's pathetic. But however she obviously had a price tag I could work around with. I just accepted the job and finished what was requested. He had total control of the false facebook account I gave him in which I personally made from scratch. It was a huge price tag but I made that sum by finessing my skills and knowledge with human psychology. I think if a person doesn't know how to talk or speak they should hire someone who could do that for them, truthfully or not. Money is money, and that's everything that gets you a step further in life. I just provide my service wholeheartedly with a 100% moneyback guarantee if I fail. That's called wonderful and safe business. It's all about manipulating the human brain, emotion and fear center. If you're a neurotic person or not, you know. A lot comes in to hand when accepting these kind of jobs. You'd have to really know your way around social engineering to pull this off.

Money is money, broke or poor. You have to have an income, and I accept money from everyone. As long as it is through legal terms though. He paid for a legal service, in which I did no illegal action on my behalf. I just called the girl and told her a fake story, it was her choice to believe it or not. Nothing illegal there, simply being a great talker doesn't make me ignorant. It makes me do my job at my best, I'm a salesman so It would be in my profession to try to convince someone in order of doing so. I'm just not fully truthful in my part, it still made me earn money.

I've manipulated extreme salesmen and big company executives, fuck that chick. The difficult part was to make her believe me because they literally spent all day together the last months and both of them are faithful and loyal to each other. (She was German) she thought I was a foreign exchange student, I even fake cried. It's more difficult to fabricate a lie when the user knows the truth, but to make her doubt the truth that need extreme manipulation skills, indeed it does. Update: I forgot to mention, she's a fucking medical student. If you consider that low IQ, you're a retard.

It's something that I miss, I once wasn't like this. A lot of things happened throughout 2013 til 2018 Child Protective Services, Police issues, Physical and mental abuse at home, drug use as a kid (I preferred opiates). Being a sociopath doesn't necessarily make you a bad human being, it's the norms and ethics implanted in you that makes it so. I've heard plenty of girls cry over relationships, this isn't the first time I've heard someone sob over a story. It's just another 1 and 0 in the universe, everyone cries over relationships, relationships always get broken and the world is run by capitalist psychopathic white motherfuckers that want control over everything and everyone in the world. I don't pity myself, as I see myself as an individual who has abilities no one else has, and that is truly something unique. Yes I may lack human connection and interaction, but there is still one personality of mine that is extremely caring and loving. I still support people wherever I go and no matter what I do I try my best to help people going through bad times, and I don't care if anybody else is judging. As long as I do my part in the world, choose the right decisions instead of the wrong ones. I'm not a bad human because I told a false story in which she had to believe me or not. Police do it all the time, politicians, teachers, media... I mean should I even try to continue? You get the point.

It's better to be proud of one self instead of choosing to undermine your self and start calling yourself a "freak". I think that's why you have issues with comprehending the fact that I'm something else, because you'd never be like me and quite frankly I'm glad that you're not. This ^. This is the best comment on the thread so far, I really wish I could leave more apples to this GOAT comment. Excactly, you do understand where I'm getting at. Society is fucked up from before, we are being mass hypnotized by teachers, lecturers, media and even the government. I mean even Trump has done worse things than me and he's the fucking President of USA. Now tell me, am I more fucked up than the most guarded man in the world, nahh I'm actually a better option compared to him. And if a psychopat deems themselves way more milder than the Head of the fucking country, something has gone wrong. And it's not my diagnosis that's the problem, it's the people.

Like dude I guess if you're really a psychopath like you say then you don't care and enjoyed it, but there's so many non asshole ways to make money online that this is kind of dumb.

I didn't enjoy it at all, I was bored. I didn't want to continue since I was bored, it was a really dumb request I agree. But hey, money is money.

He paid for a legal service, in which I did no illegal action on my behalf. I just called the girl and told her a fake story, it was her choice to believe it or not. Nothing illegal there, simply being a great talker doesn't make me ignorant. It makes me do my job at my best, I'm a salesman so it would be in my profession to try to convince someone in order of doing so. I'm just not fully truthful in my part, it still made me earn money.

Salesmen are NOT allowed to just totally lie about a product. There are laws and business rules around that. You committed slander and defamation that the boyfriend could sue you for if he knew who you were. Not that I think he'll ever find out. But technically no you didn't do an 100% legal thing.

I live in Norway, it's okay. The laws here are different.

It was extremely difficult but everything was planned heads-on... I had it visualized in my brain like a master plan and I paid it off to buy som good khush so I'm happy and stoned af right now. I'm a well functioning sociopath, so I know my ways around a human. It was extremely delightful to manipulate the shit, out of her. And she told me spesifically would've known if someone was faking the story. I giggled a little and went on. She started crying for 30 mins and believed the whole story. They work at the same hospital, dorm and room. This was no easy task, you'd have to have extreme skill and knowledge. I acquired the task and finished it, nuff said. And I even gave a 100% Moneyback Guarantee. That's confidence, skill and extreme mental capabilities.

Sociopaths never admit they're sociopaths. You're probably just heavily depressed if you don't feel much. :(

If you need emotional support I'm here for you. <3
