Thread: Anyone with a Bizspark account?

Bolt - May 26, 2018, 9:41 pm

Is there anyone with a Bizspark subscription that can provide me with a download link and key to Windows 7? Im in urgent need of one. I can't find my recovery disk and im trying to get my old computer back and running. I would really appreciate it from the bottom of my heart. Thank you!!

If you have no luck with Bizspark, you can buy windows 7 keys off ebay for less than $10 then installing it from here

If you can't find someone with a BizSpark account, and don't want to spend money, you could always use a KMS activator and a ripped copy.

Unless, of course, you're installing it on a computer that you plan on selling.

Not even sure what BizSpark is.
