Thread: [\[FREE\] Thread Design by Wearing My Signature](#)

Neodraxis - May 29, 2018, 5:31 pm

Going to be giving away one thread design in the interest of bettering my skills.

Comment below with your details, and I will pick the winner a month from now (unless I find an interesting project before that).

I am looking to design a thread with lots of information, the more the merrier. Looking for something interesting.

Feel free to use this format:

The second code is the signature format, while the first one is the thread design information.

Looks great. How much do you normally charge for a thread design? I've seen you around often.

You look like a reliable designer.

Depending on the complexity, designs could go upwards to $100.
