Elena Gilbert - June 2, 2018, 5:20 am

There are so many sites out there to do this, why not just share.

Because those sites are getting turned down by Shutterstock whenever they go saturated.
I hope you understand :)

Thanks for doing this!

By the way if you could either get the vector or the highest quality possible (could .zip it or upload on a uncompressed website such as wetransfer)? Thanks a lot!

Thing is, with vectors you normally get an AI file. Doubt rippers can get them. (mine can't at least)
