This is no longer available! It has been sales trashed into an oblivion by competing sellers who are lying.

if you have purchased the platinum package of this book, you are still entitled to your help. contact details are in the guide.

Well, you could tell more about the methods. How much have you earnt, how much time does it take to setup (i dont think so you can actually make money 10 minute after you purchase the ebook) etc.

Great questions and I'm glad you raised them now rather than later where this could be not seen by people.

I have personally made thousands of dollars with these methods. I don't want to say the exact figure, because it's not the million dollars here that other (scam) methods talk about. I also don't want people to think that this is the most you can make. It depends on how much effort you put in -- though there is a passive method for earning income in the book which is good (and which I have personally made thousands off too). At the very least, with the amount of effort I put in, thousands is the least you could put in each day. I was only spending like a few minutes sometimes an hour on these a day. Add that I didn't do it everyday too, thousands is still very impressive.

Believe it or not, you can get started in less than 10 minutes. It all depends on your internet though. My internet isn't the best (less than 4mbps actually) and I can still get started in a matter of minutes.

Whether or not it actually takes 10 minutes or 15 minutes to setup isn't what I'm trying to personally promote here. There are things which can take hours to setup and are very complicated which most people don't make money on. I did Instagram and CPA last year, I spent hours setting up MassPlanner, purchasing accounts, verifying them, editing -- only for them to get banned and for all my money and time to be wasted. So setup time which is long doesn't automatically guarantee results either. Complicated stuff typically doesn't make people money on here. It's a sad matter of fact.

That being said, this still can only take 10 minutes to setup.

I didn't say all. There are some which work, but those are far in between. I'm not promising $4,000 a day. I'm promising practical methods which have made me money, which don't require a lot of time or money to get started (a demotivator). You should actually buy this book to see whats in it. Maybe you'll change your tune after to be more positive and enthusiastic (happy people only get ahead)!

It's not suspicious at all and I reject the implication that comes with this comment. Most vouch copies that are given out are done to leech the information and not to actually write a review.

Techius - June 5, 2018, 8:42 pm

Nobody exposed anything. They're just posting fake reviews on my thread to try boost their own threads up. These negative reviews are fake and sales trashing.

Weird! ayyboss UID=3700690 is sales trashing me on this thread, but in the one posted by people who are also sales trashing me, he's invoking interest in their methods.

There's some food for thought.

ayyboss - June 5, 2018, 8:50 pm

OP has basically proved all the so called "sales trashers" correct.

1. You have been exposed for selling shit methods
2. You refuse to give a vouch copy
3. You give bad rep to everyone who exposes you.

Techius - June 5, 2018, 8:56 pm

By who? Someone who is selling money making methods for $200. Of course he's not going to be fair and objective. It's in his benefit to sales trash me so his own thread is more looked upon favourably. Look at the people who are sales trashing my threads, they're part of the same group. If you don't think there's something up, then I don't know what to say.

Why would I give a vouch copy to people when they don't actually write reviews? They just want the method. Most vouches in other threads are bullshit too, designed to make the threads look good so that people can sell their overpriced methods.

Once again, there's no exposing. Also, if you look at your rep history, you just have a flatout history of sales trashing on other peoples threads. Are you unable to read? Look at the reasons for why you get negatives and neutrals.

You will never get rich with your skeptic mindset.

"they just want the method"

Yes. They do. But who the hell would buy a method with no proof it works? You don't have any sort of proof and can't give vouch copies. At least give one copy to a randy if you want sales.

And yes, a lot of the vouches are basically bullshit with fake proof. Why not change it up and give a vouch copy to someone who can give legit proof?

Techius - June 5, 2018, 9:04 pm

So we're on the same page then. You agree that other money making methods are bullshit. You agree that they use flashy advertisements to try lure people in. You agree that they use fake positive reviews to get people in.

We're on the same side! I personally will help you if you buy the method so we can see what you think. I'll even give you a coupon code MAKEMONEY to get 20% off.

I want you to give me a review. I want you to try the methods. I want a fair and objective review. Not a direct sales trash from a competitor.

I'm willing to help you. We can get started in a matter of minutes if you want.

PCM69 - June 5, 2018, 9:07 pm

Do you think about things before you write them? I paid $25 for this just to see if you were being legit or if you're hating on other sellers as a marketing tactic. It's literally ewhoring and gambling, I'm not sales trashing. You aren't a competitor, you're selling a $25 ebook that teaches people how to do common sense tasks.

I felt bad at first because you seem genuine but now it really seems like you're just trying to make a quick buck man. You've been on this site since 2014, you of all people should know a gambling script and ewhoring methods aren't worth selling to people.

Techius - June 5, 2018, 9:40 pm

Still sales trashing.

Isn't it interesting how these people of "private money making methods" want you to spend hundreds on their methods, but when a person who is completely honest and isn't selling a pile of shit actually wants to help people they have to know the methods. Why can't I be held up to the same extent?

What a slippery slope this is. Let's say I was doing IG marketing, and I had a special niche. People would want to firstly know that I was doing IG. Then I'd have to say my niche, just so people like you don't come along and sales trash and write fake negative reviews about me.

Techius - June 6, 2018, 12:33 am

They can say it's eWhoring. They can say it's facebook marketing. They can say it's shopify. Why would that matter? What doesn't matter is the method itself, but how you actually make money and the information that comes with it.

All methods are technically public. There are people who sell facebook marketing. Should they be done for selling public methods? No. Because that's not how it works. What I sell is high quality information to help you make money. None of my methods are public. I personally write them all myself and have actually done these methods, unlike people who claim to sell these books offering $10,000...

All methods are technically public. There are people who sell facebook marketing. Should they be done for selling public methods? No. Because that's not how it works. What I sell is high quality information to help you make money. None of my methods are public. What do you mean they can say its eWhoring? I'm saying it is, and it's a very public method that's been posted on this forum for free several times, the other one maybe isn't as exposed but its based on a platform that is, and the other one is just completely random method thats also public. You can make money off these very public methods, and I'd honestly not even go back and leave a review, your thread just pissed me off so much... you try and point that money making methods are bullshit, but yours is bullshit too. I'd appreciate a refund ? , ima smoke a joint and go to sleep.

You're just sales trashing and trying to leak the method. You're skirting a very fine line here.
