I'm not sure they still sale it here at my local store but I have noticed it's not at every store. I just googled it and it looks like they sale it at Walmart.

Green one I bought at the boxing event I attended yesterday was really good.

What are you jits doing with Gatorade. Everyone knows the true alpha male drinks PowerAde. It has "power" in the name even.

Fr0ze001 - June 3, 2018, 5:54 pm

why are you guys calling it by flavor and not color?

Haven't had Gatorade in a while, but has to be red or light blue #basic

Yeah it wasn't a common one, but it was the only flavor that could top Grape for me

Rece - June 3, 2018, 8:18 pm

Been drinking Brisk instead of Gatorade lately - but the blue one is my favorite. I think it's called something glacier.
