Thread: Always check previous threads of Seller!

Some of you might be familiar with the scam report i posted against

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=676894>

The thing is i took for granted that he is Ub3r and that he has a reputation. He asked for BTC which is right away nail in the coffin because you can't refund that yourself.

Now after i paid he stopped replying etc, so i started browsing hes threads and ONLY THEN i found that he is a scammer. Lots of people posted comments that he is owing to them money, and he was just ignoring those posts. But this is not a thread about scam report, it is just to pay attention to mistakes that i made.

My tips for new people here are:

- No matter if he is ub3r, L33t or whatever, always check hes previous deals from the thread, and threads before, like 80% people are good and won't scam you, but there is always some garbage that will take the chance because you are new and you don't have anyone to back you up.

- Guy that scammed me was selling 10 different services: Hes professional in SEO, in GFX, selling books on how to become very rich, facebook tips etc

^ This right away should be a trigger that he is struggling on making cash and that in one point he will probably scam someone.

- Once they scam you they will stall or not talk to you at all, so best idea possible is to screenshot conversations and report them here, and you will see that you will get their attention only then!

- Biggest mistake i made was probably the one that i didn't ask for hes portfolio, he never showed me previous work so i couldn't even know if he is what he is. Always demand some sort of proof of services.

- Most people won't believe you, because you got no rep and you got no posts, so as i said use your truth, screenshot it and post it so everyone can see.

- Talk with hes previous customers that got scammed as well (if there are any), make a group and attack him at once, the more people take a role to better.

Hope that this helps to someone who will in future encounter scammers, be prepared and always pay attention to details.

Theres already a thread that is stickied in the rules for the marketplace that covers how to avoid getting scammed <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=1357115>

Stop making false accusations/allegations.

First of all, I never stopped replying.

Apart from that, you're the one who tried to scam/hack/dox me.

And your so called "flags/triggers" are very questionable/debatable - it's your opinion, nothing more, nothing less.

I've got the feeling this is not intended as guide/helpful thread, but rather another poor attempt trying to slander my name in public.

For each o,f my accusation i have valid proofs which i posted on my thread, and you got 0 proofs of anything.

You scammed a couple of other people as well however nobody ever opened a scam report, people should be aware of someone like you.

For each of your accusations, I've valid proof which proves otherwise.

You're just making up allegations/accusations - yet can't back them up (your lack of ability to comprehend my words/our TOS, does not make your claims legit).

Anyway I am not going to argue over such in this thread.

Hopefully, people make up their own mind & see the truth.

Here are my proofs, where are yours?

Proof 1 : I ask him to send me contact information of that company that he hired and he is waiting now on refund, so i can see if they exist at all and so i can ask them personally, of course he won't give because that company doesn't exist at all!

Proof 2 : Keep saying that he will provide proofs but they are never shown.

Proof 3 : I ask for proofs of any sort of work that he done, or anything at all, he doesn't give.

<https://snag.gy/Ym6z5x.jpg>

Proof 4 : He says that he don't got anything to hide, YET he hides contact information of that company and of "job he completed for me" Not a single proof that he has done anything at all!

<https://snag.gy/aCKnHT.jpg>

Proof 5 : Threatens that he will keep 60$ becuae i broke hes famous non-existing TOS, actually it's because i took courage to report him and tell the world who he really is.

<https://snag.gy/elRvyM.jpg>

Proof 6 : Now he agrees to give me refund all of the sudden, but in like couple of days (which i doubt he will) And of course i should be happy now because he will give me back my own money...

As always, he says he will not respond anymore and then he keeps posting.

Like he does in every thread.

Such a miserable person.

Everybody saw who you are, check your reputation it's falling slowly :).

Everybody saw who you are, check your reputation it's falling slowly :).Well, unfortunately, you keep on making accusations, & I've got the urge to defend myself/let people know about the truth.

You're right about this one though; I am wasting my time arguing. Would like to/want to stop posting/waisting my time, until I see you always coming up with new allegations/accusations.

If not, so be it.
