Thread: Happy Goodwill Monday - HF Holiday

Xerotic - June 4, 2018, 9:03 am

Hello everybody! Today is the first Monday in June which means it is HF's official holiday... Goodwill Monday! This is the ninth year that we are celebrating the day.

Today you should only give out positive reputation (unless it is marketplace related) and generally bring a positive attitude to the forums. Feel free to use up all of your reputation for the day in celebration. All regular reputation rules still apply. You cannot ask for rep and you should definitely not flame other members.

Happy repping and happy Goodwill Monday!

I completely forgot about good will Monday. I always enjoy giving out rep to members who deserve it. Without any links ill mention here to anyone looking for a recipient you can look in the coding sections i often see regular.members who have joined fairly recently being really helpful. Especially the php section.

Hope its okay to say that.

Is there a rep listing with the memberlist here? Like sort by amount of rep?

I'd just get those who are close to R3KT over the hump.
