Thread: [\[SOLVED\] User Zayde UID= 3689090 owes me \$5 and ignoring me \[SOLVED\]](#)

Hailstone - June 5, 2018, 3:23 pm

Zayde paid me the $5 so there's nothing left here

Sad I know, but if he's going to fuck off with $5 he'd do it with any amount so hopefully this can prevent any other member from dealing with him.

Profile; <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3689090>

Deal; He wanted to purchase Spectrum/Charter accounts (thread deleted) so he PM'd me saying this

<http://prntscr.com/jrcewz>

<http://prntscr.com/jrcezs>

<http://prntscr.com/jrcf2z> He gave me his discord to do the deal

<http://prntscr.com/jrcfc2> First account I gave

<http://prntscr.com/jrcfj9> Sent my BTC address

<http://prntscr.com/jrcfz6> He asked for 2 more accounts but must have deleted the messages

<http://prntscr.com/jrcgg0> He said his ledger was in his safe and he'd pay tomorrow (today)

<http://prntscr.com/jrcgwj> More of his BS

If you are confused we agreed on $5 but he must have deleted his messages as he's a broke boy and must need that $5

Anways im not worried about it but if anyone was thinking about dealing with him dont, he will scam you.

"If anyone is thinking about dealing with him, dont"

I've done a lot of exchanges on here since I came back here and I've went forts in every single one of them.

+ I never agreed that I would pay you anything you just kept saying send the $5 or whatever, if you were so worried then why did you send the accounts first (and I didn't even use the accounts)

Imagine opening a dd for $5. GTFO

Goodnight , I'll respond to this BS tomorrow

“As he’s a broke boy and must need the $5”

Bro you legit begged me for the $5 and pestered me so hard Imfao,

So how does that work out if “I’m the broke one ahahah”

Goodnight x2

You actually did but you deleted your messages on discord. I don’t give a fuck about the accounts. We agreed on a price and you unfortunately didn’t end up paying me. Is $5 a lot to you or something? I don’t care about it but this is rather a warning to users that deal with you. You are unprofessional and no one should waste their time with you.

Nah I never pestered you. Don’t do a deal with someone and try to get out of paying them.

We

Never

Said

That

I

Had

To

Pay

Certain

Amount

Or

Any at that. You then contacted me about something else

He deleted his message where he said he was going to send $5which is why i asked him to show proof that he never agreed to pay for the accounts.

well you were both talking about a price, and you were talking about paying until you said it was a tip.

From an impartial 3rd party perspective--

Quote:+ I never agreed that I would pay you anything you just kept saying send the $5 or whatever, if you were so worried then why did you send the accounts first (and I didn't even use the accounts)

Clearly looks like you understand you will be sending money for said accounts.

Furthermore, you even say you would pay $5 here:

Also, he's pestering you because you haven't paid him -- how does that make him broke? Seems like you're in the wrong and everything you said contradicts the logs so it makes you seem guilty. You should have just said, "I wasn't sure I wanted to buy yet, but he sent it anyways and then I decided I didn't want it." At least be smart -- then again, smart people don't need to scam?

@OP -- If you need $5, hit me up. I'll comp you.

smh if it makes me look like a scammer I'll pay tomorrow, logging off now.

Actually just to sort it, send me your btc addy:

I have sent the payment; sorry for confusion.

Hailstone - June 5, 2018, 5:06 pm

He sent me the payment. Thank you.
