Great addition to the AA.

Keep us updated with P2, as for P1, you could add more to the Drama and Adventure sections.

Calm down everyone. This isn't OC but a report disguised as one. Using my CSI skills I saw that OP posted to the Sticky Thread called "The Otaku Handbook" and literally made the same post called "Animu Handbook". Close but you can't stump me.

Good job though really. You've got some decent taste from the looks of some titles.

Look at the top of the section. The thread called "Otaku Handbook" that you posted to at literally the same time you posted this thread. Same material.
