Thread: Need help accessing an old Facebook account and Hotmail account

Panda182 - June 6, 2018, 8:43 am

Hi guys is there anyone skilled enough to get me into my old Hotmail account I need to get some important emails off there and I really can't access it I'm at a loss as there is no real human from Hotmail who will talk it's all automated services

Spare us of bullshit, if u wanna access your old hotmail/facebook account u ask facebook/hotmail support and/or do a process to get it back.

Atleast like a real man say 'i wanna hack someone's facebook/hotmail account' so we can tell u that u cant do it

Haha bro I wish Imfao it keeps takin me back to the same bullshit round about send new email address add old emails and subjects I can't remember them from 2014 Imfao yet I need access haha I know that most you hackers are uneffical fools but not all of us are most are just looking for some help to redain access lol

Do you really reckon my first thought was I know rather then going to Facebook I'll go to a hack forum Sheesh

Form a proper sentence before asking for help.

Also no one can help you get your own account back. Your better off attempting to answer the security questions or what not.
