Hey.

Got a Retail Google Pixel 2 XL 128GB Black at my Viabox. Ready to be shipped. Price is $200 BTC. Price is firm. Let me know who wants it.

Edit: Selling the whole account with the Pixel in, you can ship it where you want.

Viabox only ships to the address you put on it on sign up. JS.

Was this acquired through the SE method that everyone is using to rape google?

What country are you in? Is it unlocked?

I would buy this but I would want to put down a deposit, receive the product first, then pay the remaining.

Don't forget to use a middleman.

This is social engineered, also it might be restricted to Verizon couriers, watch out.

Not the case. Can simply be changed via my account section as long as your account is verified.

No comment - You should probably already know the answer to this.

US, and no can do. Selling the reship. If I wanted to wait, I'd just sell it on eBay. No offence intended.

I don't need that confirmation but you pretty much confirmed. You cannot sell SE'd products here.
