This is the payment proof both on the thread design and at the top incase he removes it.

All seems good at first right lets take a further look.

This right here is what sets it off. See how when transferring to bank the money isnt negative. Why is his balance going up at bank transfer.

Meanwhile a real paypal transaction, transfer to bank decreases your balance and has a Negative symbol

Thanks got this from one of the commenters

This account is most likely his multi -

He's a multi and probably a scammer too. Thanks Eccy for pointing out his fake screenshot.

Juffar - June 11, 2018, 5:47 am

I mean it's kinda obvious it's fake but that's just retarded, nice find.

Neodraxis - June 11, 2018, 5:48 am

Thanks for pointing this out. User seemed off from the start.

Wow, well its pretty easy to do, thats why you should never take things on face value, but we all do sometimes.

also on a side note, your profile picture is creepy.

Your profile picture looks like a human to me!

SlowMehMo - June 11, 2018, 5:56 am kinda sucks that the good methods get drowned out by the crappy spam, i bought some crappy methods that made no sense and i bought some good ones that did make a decent amount. i need to try ewhoring, i feel like i could be good at that.

His other ss on that thread is fake too. This isn't half as obvious but you can see the connecting pixels to the $0.00 on one side and on his "earnings" side the $ doesn't have any connecting pixels to the 8.

Which is precisely why people should not use this kind of 'proof' as a valid reason to make a purchase online.

It takes less than 2 minutes to right click and save a page as an HTML file- allowing you to modify it for those stupid refreshed page gifs.

More people need to know about this, people think it's real just because they refreshed.

Frost - June 11, 2018, 10:16 am

Looked suspicious from the beginning. Probably is just another multi of some ebook sellers from here, lol.

Marina Nagasawa - June 11, 2018, 10:32 am

Looking forward to seeing how he defends himself on this. Didn't even halfass editing his SS's lol.

Donny Phantom - June 11, 2018, 11:58 am

Lol maxo has helped me and is still helping me through his ban. You are a low quality multi he's told me what you've done.

That is not my place, I was only shown proof by maxo offsite. When he got banned you recovered the paypal stealth you sold him on your main multi "pronouncer" with $300 on it and then used this multi of yours to make a community alert. He said he will be making his community alert when he is unbanned.

You really are stupid if you think Eccy and pronouncer are the same person

WealthyPips - June 13, 2018, 3:43 pm

Just purchased his method a few days ago... ???

XDigitalPixelX - June 15, 2018, 9:05 pm

I also bought his method as i like to buy ebooks like his but after i bought it the method was a copy paste of another ebook called revenue stream by another user named Xphsyic i dont know if they are the same person contacted both people no reply as of yet but i don't like the idea of someone selling someone elses book if it is a copy without the original authors permission i will get myself a refund
