Thread: What was the point of allowed rep begging?

I know resetting rep might have some retarded purpose, but allowed rep begging literally destroyed this forum lmfao.

I'm hoping this is a temporary meme and he's going to reset rep a 3rd time and ban rep begging again.

To further the point that reputation is entirely pointless now that we have the B ratings.

scam. - June 12, 2018, 6:29 am

Its only going to be a shit show for a little bit

Once the dust settles and people realise it makes them look dumb people will stop asking

Because ultimately they will realise it means nothing meant fuck all before means even less now

Id trust someone with low rep over some rep4rep nerd

Just sell rep to retards they will actually pay for it lol

So remove regular rep and keep B ratings. What the fuck is the point of these numbers now? It's only going to create spam, as you can see.

It was pointless yet tried to have a point now there's no reason for it to exist.

It should be removed entirely. It has zero value/addition to the forum right now. People simply beg for it, threads everywhere.

Rep actually used to show someone's dedication to the forum.
