Thread: Ub3rs view ban reason on profile

NoSuchAgency - June 12, 2018, 8:19 pm

Would be a cool thing to be implemented. I remember like the HF suite userscript did it.

I'm just nosey and like to see why people I don't like got fucked up

&Yes I know about bans.php. this would just be a convenient feature for ub3rs. ?

Mr Kewl - June 13, 2018, 1:50 pm

Honestly would make things very convenient, I'm unsure if Staff can do this, if they can then it can be easily implemented.

Kraith - June 14, 2018, 12:47 am

Definitely something I agree with would help. I can't tell you the countless times I've clicked on a banned users profile searching for the reason LOL. Just to be nosey.

Ganja - June 14, 2018, 11:10 am

This is obviously not top priority, but I would like to have this addition as well, as I too like to know why members got banned and often have trouble finding it.

Cammy - June 14, 2018, 11:59 am

There is already an userscript that does this

<https://greasyfork.org/en/scripts/2949-hack-forums-ban-reason-on-profile>

But i know omni doesn't rly like userscripts so it would be aight if he made it a built-in feature Agreed. I don't want to use a userscript for this type of thing.

Lrrr - June 14, 2018, 12:13 pm

I agree, this would be a really cool ub3r feature that brings great UI experience and lets people be social and rumorish which helps forums in general

Gt403cyl - June 14, 2018, 12:36 pm

I've suggested this before and it was shot down by Omni.

Uhhhh.. I'd like it to be implemented but somehow I don't think that is going to happen you can't check the ban reason for an old user

OP already said he knows that

Saltpeter - June 14, 2018, 12:57 pm

As much as I'd like to see this happen, I really don't think it will.

You can't read? I mentioned this already in the OP.

sAVITAR - June 14, 2018, 4:22 pm

Might be something for the new rank (R00T) and not Ub3r since it's discontinued.

That's cool too, I'll be upgrading regardless. ?

What is the reason that it's only possible to go back 3 days?

So if the ban was given any longer than that, it doesn't work.

That's why you read the HF News; granted it's not ALL bans, just notable in the past 7 days. :)

Evanescence - June 14, 2018, 6:22 pm

I too agree with the idea.

I believe someone wrote a userscript for that and Omni was angry at that and he limited viewing bans to only few recent ones.

(Jun 14, 2018 06:23 PM)xadamxk Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Omni limited it because someone (not me for a change ?) made a script for ban reason on profile.

To combat the script, Omni made it so it only shows bans from the last 3 days.

Haha okay I can understand that.

Omniscient - June 15, 2018, 3:35 pm

Actually, because I'm not in the best mood and because your suggestion (and others) are pissing me off. Bans page is now removed from Ub3r entirely which means userscripts can fuck off too.
