Thread: New Ub3r Suspension

Omniscient - June 13, 2018, 1:06 pm

I am making some decisions about what to do with the Ub3r group. I suspended Ub3r applications but have also decided to remove the ability for members to upgrade into Ub3r.

It's likely that no one can get Ub3r anymore and I'll create a new group which won't require manual approval.

I'm still considering options but for now, if you don't have Ub3r you may never get it.

Grizzlies - June 13, 2018, 1:07 pm

What's the group your creating?

God of Thunder - June 13, 2018, 1:07 pm

Atleast I got to ub3r before R3KT. Being in one of the non existent groups feels pretty dope lol

Will current UB3R members keep their so-called rank? Confused about this.

We made it boys, it's been a rollercoaster.

ryan? - June 13, 2018, 1:13 pm

10 years of tradition just gone lol, don't really like it, but meh.

Personally think requirements for Ub3r should be stricter and automated. R3kt should be for oldfags. L33t should be more expensive since anyone can buy it and 3P1c should be a pseudo-version of Ub3r.

SIM-2263652 - June 13, 2018, 1:13 pm

I love this idea. Old members have something from the old days, like those old rewards, without some special powers. Best idea yet.

Looks like many radical changes are around the corner. Would be interesting to see where we'll be in 6 months from now. Off-topic but are you gonna make the old reputation archive available for viewing anytime soon? I'll be more open to any sort of change if this happens. I'm more sad over lost memories that I made throughout my teens on this website than just the green numbers I don't really care about. They were just sentimental value to me. I'm happy to see rapid changes though, good luck.

Hell yeah in 10 yrs us ub3rs will be legendary. Pls never bring it back!

You should consider 2 or 3 new upgrade tiers! Last one also needing high rep and high post count. Could make it a very elite group to get into. Something like 25k posts 1000 rep. Just an idea ?

chznce - June 13, 2018, 5:51 pm

Question for Omni, you may not have the answer to this yet and that is fine. Does this mean that the new group will be allowed to post in certain sections where the UB3Rs can or will they be the only ones allowed. For example, in CE only UB3Rs can post there.

It would be nice to have an exclusive section again, other than the custom user groups.

It's likely the permissions for the new group will be very similar, if not the same, as Ub3r.

Arkane21 - June 13, 2018, 6:05 pm

I am curious as to what the new group will be and whether the privileges will be on par to the UB3R user group.

Even if they are equally-privileged, the UB3R members will have a sort of "badge of honour" that no one else can get, making them stand out from the others.

I think the members who are currently UB3R are very lucky and will be able to flaunt their exclusiveness after UB3R upgrades become unavailable. To be fair- since the current non-UB3R members cannot and will not ever be able to show off an UB3R user bar, I think the new user group should have equal access and privilege to the forums.

HIGH_JAX - June 13, 2018, 8:10 pm

Why get rid of Ub3r? It just seems so odd with all of these changes. What is your end goal? What are trying to accomplish?

Why remove a system that's been on HF for years, it's like taking the captain out of a team in a sport like football. It's always been there and the fundamentals shouldn't change, I don't personally agree with it because it will be harder for L33Ts to exchange and so on.

I really am not liking a few of these changes, they don't make sense but oh well I guess that's in the hands of the owner.

The problem is the system you are referring to is aging. What happens to things that age and do not get revamped or changed? they get abandoned or fail.

With that being said it is also important to be cautious because changing things in a way of which people cannot get used to or accept will also lead to failure we can look at MySpace as a prime example for that.

All I know is if people keep on riding Omniscient's ass every time he decides to make a change whether good or for bad he might just say fuck it and close the forums down and as a result we may never see his real intentions in the end on what he has planned.

Well in the OP Omni states "...if you don't have Ub3r you may never get it." Which implies it is going to be discontinued. He also confirms that those who already have Ub3r will be keeping the award which also implies that the group as a whole is going.

I would like to think we would be added to whatever group succeeds Ub3r considering we have all paid for Ub3r. You think he will just kick us all out and make us pay for another upgrade? I understand R3KT being something that is taken from people without protest because it was a free usergroup/upgrade. That will be something to work towards.

Like R3KT and 3P1C because one day, they will become unobtainable.

I feel this it's actually pretty lit that the Ub3r award will be a discontinued one nowadays, looking forward to seeing what the next upgrade group looks like.

It feels like this is a whole new site / changing into a whole new one.

I was wondering why i lost my rep

Marwiz - June 15, 2018, 9:08 am

Bad news, Im not yet Uber.

Ali?s - June 15, 2018, 9:27 am

So we exclusive now! This actually sounds much better

Lrrr - June 15, 2018, 11:07 am

I may never have gotten r3kt, but at-least I have my ub3r!

will the people who already got UB3R also get that upgrade?

If you're asking if all Ub3r are going to be automatically added to r00t. The answer is NO. That's a dumb question.

(Jun 13, 2018 01:06 PM)Omniscient Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I am making some decisions about what to do with the Ub3r group. I suspended Ub3r applications but have also decided to remove the ability for members to upgrade into Ub3r.

It's likely that no one can get Ub3r anymore and I'll create a new group which won't require manual approval.

I'm still considering options but for now, if you don't have Ub3r you may never get it.
So I'll be in a super special exclusive group..?

Hmm. Okay. But only if I can keep the group to switch between it and some user groups if I feel like :)

Jusr noticed I don't have permission to view /bans.php anymore?

That is because it's disabled.

Quote:Actually, because I'm not in the best mood and because your suggestion (and others) are pissing me off. Bans page is now removed from Ub3r entirely which means userscripts can fuck off too.

What would be the point in a new group then?

That was meant to be a 2 parts question, but then I noticed that he responded to the questions I wanted to ask in another thread :

(Jun 15, 2018 03:53 PM)Omniscient Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) They will remain Ub3r. If they want r00t they can purchase into the group BUT, it's not going to offer them more than what Ub3r already has. I'm not doing this to make all the Ub3rs upgrade again. For the time-being r00t group will have more or less all the same features as Ub3r so there isn't a lot of reason to upgrade into the group. Over time that may change but realistically not anytime soon.

CHAOS - June 16, 2018, 7:11 pm

Honestly i don't think i'm gonna spend any more money for groups, at the end of the day if you're ub3r you already have all the things you need, no point upgrading.

Not to mention the random "fuck you all" rep reset for everybody, that's not a nice way to treat the supporters of the site imho.

Why even bother taking the discussion if you can't get your facts straight? You wont even have the possibility to update to r00t so stop whining.
