Thread: User on HF wants Gov website hacked.

His country is a little bit different, and it' can be done.

The issue is, he wants to pay $2k for it - then each change made for individual users 25% which will be like $25.

Some people on HF really amaze me with the things they come up with.

Nah dude was dead serious, quick look into his profile tells us that. It's just hilarious people thinking it's just OK to ask that sort of thing on here.

He paid $240 for them when they would cost $100 total when they are released.

I'm patient.

Sounds spurious to me.

Not sure if anyone could be this dumb, wouldn't be surprised though.
