And haven't made one sale. had about 200 guys message me and not a one of them would sell to me, many of them kept asking for xx amount of proof pics and kept asking for teasing pics. when I send one they wanted more, etc etc. Idk if this is worth it since I can't get one person and my fingers are tired of typing over and over constantly and getting the same thing just different guys.

If they want to buy, they will buy. If they ask for more than 2 previews, do not give in.

200 guys and not even $10? You're doing something wrong.

That's a lot of traffic with no sales .. you might wanna check into your method a bit more and see if there's something you could do to improve those odds . Even with the people who try wasting my time I can ply at least 5$ from .

How are you actually messaging them what are you saying? Dont send any nude previews send 2 max non nude and if they ask for a nude after the previews just delete them

I don't send more than 2 pics, one half nude doesn't show anything but is a teasing pic and one non nude. and I basically tell them up front I am selling my pics or tell them I am horny and wanting $um one to have $um fun with. stuff like that.

Send a decent message call them babe, add kisses etc and dont set a price thats too high, dont just send "hey selling pics" make it sound like you are interested in them. Dont spend too long on someone if they say they are interested. If they know you are selling and they are "interested" tell them your payment method and if they ask for a preview send it. Usually people who dont constantly bug you with questions are the ones that buy in my experience

I did all that and still didn't get any sells. I even told them was running a special just for them 20$ for 25 pics, 25$ for 30 etc. told them everyone else it would be 15 pics for 20 and so on. they still wouldn't buy.
