How honest would you be about how bad your parents were at raising you?

1 to 10 scale is accurate for this don't question me.

Almonds - June 15, 2018, 2:02 am

I would give it a 6 or so, but it definitely varies.

SIM-1097664 - June 15, 2018, 2:35 am

I'd say a solid 7.5 from my dad. My dad did a really good job, but I moved out from him at 17 and moved in with my mom. She realistically did about a 6. She was a good parent but more of a friend than a parent so she was almost too lax.

3? There are certainly things they could have done better but for the most part I was an ignorant child who didn't listen to their advice. I would say any bad qualities about myself are from my own actions rather than theirs.

Yea pretty much feel the same way

I would say 8. In the end, I'm the one who fucked up not them.

blocknode - June 15, 2018, 4:42 am

I'm assuming the step dad was a cunt and turned mom into one as well?

Went through the same thing lol. Dad was always good to me, little strict but a good guy. Married a cunt of a step mom and let her treat me like shit because he didn't have any backbone to stand up for me. Eventually caused me to move out to my moms.

He divorced her a couple years later. Still don't know why, haven't asked. I assume it's because he realized she was a huge cunt and while she was so concerned about what I was doing and making my life hell, she let her own kids do whatever the fuck they wanted and they all turned out to be complete failures lol.

All is good with my dad now so yea.

Holy hell the site is being glitchy as fuck. I've tried to post this like 6 times already. Anyway...

Made a whole fucking post and the site was glitchy as fuck and I tried multiple times to post and I don't see it.

Anyway, went through the same with my dad and stepmom. They're divorced now so all is good.

Mum - 9

Dad - 1 (asshole)

voidshifter666 - October 26, 2018, 1:32 pm

I would give a 6. They gave me a solid education about morals, but I had to endure a lot of psychological abuse from them.

Pyro - October 26, 2018, 1:34 pm

blaming others for your personal fails is just pathetic

SIM-3205632 - October 26, 2018, 1:37 pm

Honestly? a 3.5 my parents got divorced because my dad was an alcoholic asshole and my mother way too much about me to ever deny me something so i quit school at 13 gained weight till i was at about 175 kgs didn't punish me after i did terrible shit on the internet and got in trouble for it.

I love my mom but she had to show me more discipline nobody ever taught me how to respect or love i had to figure it out by myself and i'm still learning about it.

(Obviously in her eyes she was doing a great job and she does really care about me i know she does. it was just hard to tell me "no" when i was a kid)

SIM-2059193 - October 26, 2018, 1:38 pm

About a 3. I was largely independent

Mr. Robot - October 26, 2018, 1:38 pm

A 1. Looking back on it now that i'm older, I can honestly say they were absolutely garbage. I'm older than they were then.

SIM-3257834 - October 26, 2018, 7:21 pm

A sold 10, I am perfect and always right.

dontspamthisplease - October 26, 2018, 7:38 pm

They didn't kill me but they physically injured me on purpose, heavily. So uhh 2?

Zeus - October 31, 2018, 12:04 am

No rating, I think my parents did a fine job.

SIM-1349466 - October 31, 2018, 12:34 am

I'd say a 7. Things could've been better, things could've been worse.
