This is the payment proof both on the thread design and at the top incase he removes it.

All seems good at first right lets take a further look.

This right here is what sets it off. See how when transferring to bank the money isnt negative. Why is his balance going up at bank transfer.

Meanwhile a real paypal transaction, transfer to bank decreases your balance and has a Negative symbol

I dont apprecaite users Trying to threaten me and Tarnish my name for a bit of $$ i dont minid having community alerts open on me, i have been on HF for two years and not a single scam report.Had over 1k+ Rep

Frankey - June 16, 2018, 2:17 pm

This is no way near true, Pronouncer has been around HF for almost two years now and has 0 scam reports. There is no way he would do this for a measly $300, it seems to me MaxoKream just has it out against Pronouncer and is trying his best to tarnish his name, including ruining things for himself.

Either way, hope this get's resolved asap.

Aha i just woke up like 1-2 Hours ago at like 8PM or some dumb shit, had a Mad Eid.

1. Offsite Entirely
2. Never Originated from HF
3. Never involved HF
4. Tried my best to be civil and help him out

Mind if i add that to the thread. Also look at this Apparently someone cant wake up at night time after sleeping around 11am-1pm form no sleep the night before. He has a problem that i have a social life, and went Shisha and for food at 2am in the morning. If anyone is from london You'd know shisha Bars dont have closing times, The front door closes sometime between midnight and 2-am i believe there is a law about that but then the backdoor stays open.

Donny Phantom/Maxo is also Back

Yes it's very interesting what is bringing this donny guy to not only bump maxos threads, post sales proofs etc but also be his personal body guard on threads. He's allegedly only known the guy for a week and hasn't had much conversation with him.

If he does there's a few things I'll tell you now.

1. Only ever spoke on Disc

2. I purged all my messages arter speaking to him about the initial deal
3. I made him a free copy of the original deal and still have those messages with proof of me deleting everything I have of the new copy too.

I once lent pronouncer a fat stack via btc, he paid me back in two months earlier then promised with interest. This was probably 2 months into knowing him, we have been doing deals like this ever since and he has always been legit.

MaxoKream - June 16, 2018, 5:42 pm

This thread would be true.....if ALL of the following were true:

- My PayPal sold to me by Pronouncer (and securely transferred) was coincidentally recovered the same hour I was banned
- Agrees with Pronouncers statement that my paypal was actually "scraped from unlisted pastebin section"
- Agrees that all my money ($300 USD) was sent to a charity the same hour I was banned by someone else other than pronouncer
- Agrees with pronouncer that he lives in London and woke up at 10pm on a Monday (day I was scammed) and then went for dinner @ 2am on a road where EVERY restaurant is closed.
- Agrees that Pronouncer managed to COMPLETELY recover my PayPal account in 12 hours without access to ANY previous info from his burner phone and new email, seems legit thnx 4 the recover buddy lmao.
- Agree that Pronouncer spent 30+ minutes deleting all his messages for a reason other than hiding evidence of scamming me.

Now you all can ignore this lame panic community alert, he realized I was going to be unbanned soon and tried using this as his saferoute. The proof is LITERALLY from my phone. He is REUSING my proof because he deleted all his discord posts to hide
