Since Rep doesn't have any value anymore, does this rule still count in freebies?

Am I allowed to open a "Rep & Post here to receive the method/product" thread?

EDIT: Ah damn, accidentally opened this thread in Lounge.

omni said something about no LQ posts

so i think you can state that ull give rep but it can't be something simple as "rep me ill rep you" stuff

Rep always has no values , rep are just numbers

Pretty sure it's not allowed in that section.

Ah I didn't make my first post too clear.

That thread is related to the "rep 4 rep" principal. But what I want to do is give out a specific method for something, but only to people who rep & post.
