They wanna know you're real so they ask for a live pic

The problem is the people who ask for body pics / live pics don't buy anything

Asking for live picture from Kik is their way to verify that you're a real girl.
Use Fake camera on Kik then you can upload your selfie and send it as a live picture

This is pretty common.

Exactly what this guy said... Just them "trying" to make sure you're a real girl.
