Thread: bape hoodie storage

Off-White™ - June 19, 2018, 3:55 am i recently just bought a bape hoodie from selfridges and was wondering what is the best way to store it ?

should i just simply hang it up in my wardrobe or should i fold it and put it some where ?

This is probably a good idea.

Tight vac it in a double vac bag and throw it in a liquid nitrogen bath.

(obv I'm serious)

BTW: where did you find BAPE on their site? Seems like they only have sunglasses :/

The best way to store it is by digging a hole and throwing it down the hole. Then fill up the hole will concrete and forgetting about the stupid way you wasted money.

Seems really stupid to be so concerned on how to store a damn hoodie lol. Just hang that bitch up and be done jesuschristisfake - June 19, 2018, 6:54 am

The best way to store it is to send it to my address and I'll store it in my closet.
