Thread: Don't give duepi a review. He will SALES TRASH to promote his own thread.

Techius - June 24, 2018, 6:09 am

I gave duepi a review copy of my product, Gold University.

The review he gave was wrong and he's simply doing it because he sells his own money making methods. I probably should have looked further into his thread history, but I was too nice!

Let's dissect this trove of misinformation which he is flagrantly lying about.

(Jun 24, 2018 04:02 AM)duepi Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I request a vouch copy if it is possible.

Edit

Recived a vouch copy

I will be sincere and direct.

I have nothing against op,

I will talk only about the product that he sent me via pm.

[align=center][b]Gold univeristy is totally copied.

From where? I wrote all of these methods by myself. If I copied this product, that would be a violation of HF rules. However, I didn't do such a thing.

(Jun 24, 2018 04:02 AM)duepi Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) It does not present original content except the first 12 pages of fillers and meaningless sentences.

12 pages of fillers & meaningless sentences? That's something that can't proved, so he's lying.

Actually, there isn't 12 twelve blank "filler" pages. The third page immediately is the start of the book. So much for "filler pages".

(Jun 24, 2018 04:02 AM)duepi Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) The other pages report contents copied from:

<http://money-university.pw>

How can I copy from a website that doesn't exist? Are you saying I copy and pasted from a cgi-bin which I can't even access?

(Jun 24, 2018 04:02 AM)duepi Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) The user did not even have the desire to change the titles but was limited to a trivial copy and paste.

No proof for this. More lies.

(Jun 24, 2018 04:02 AM)duepi Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I want to clarify that the site belongs to a member of HF to which I will report this information.

How can I copy from a cgi-bin?

(Jun 24, 2018 04:02 AM)duepi Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Of course I can provide any proof you want. Then why not fucking do it?

(Jun 24, 2018 04:02 AM)duepi Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I'm not going into much detail because the site from which he copied is part of a product sold on the marketplace and I want to avoid spoilers. Ah, he can't go into much ""detail"" despite saying he has proof. He's made all of these claims without backing them up.

Why is he doing this? So he can sell his own money making methods.

I think it's sad that people have to lie just so they can get a little sale of their ebook. Whatever happened to integrity and respect? Why are these lies so flagrant and common?

The real owner of <http://money-university.pw> wiped everything just few minutes ago, because you did copy all the content.

"A few minutes ago"

Oh what a coincidence! How did you know he wiped everything a few minutes ago? That's something that can't be proved which means you're lying and just making up stuff. You just happened to stumble upon a random website with a cgi-bin, but when confronted with the facts "it was just a few moments ago".

What?

Jimmie - June 24, 2018, 6:21 am

Here is a google cached version of that website.

I checked 30 minutes ago and it worked. Also you can check in google history.

Nice. But what does that prove? It still doesn't prove I copied from it (because I didn't).

So by chance you happened to stumble upon a random website nobody has ever heard of, but when I post this thread, magically I copied off it even though it's down. Huh? I've never even heard of this website until now. I don't buy ebooks.

u?op ?pisdn - June 24, 2018, 6:27 am

Hilarious,

First you call people out saying they produce shit ebooks, then you get called out because your own ebook is shit. Which results you calling people out who say your ebook is shit.

Lets just all agree that your ebook is probably as shit as any other ebook on hf.

Techius - June 24, 2018, 6:27 am

You'd think that if I bought this random book nobody has ever heard of, I'd have a receipt for it...

I never said you copied it I was just posting it for other people to see.

Techius - June 24, 2018, 6:31 am

That's fair enough, Jimmie.

The problem is that he's claiming that I've copied off it even though it's been done. That cache was from 2 days ago. You'd think there'd be a newer cache of it existing if it was up.

He's accusing me of copying it, then it being magically down. The problem with that is that you can't prove that sort of allegation, so there's no point talking about it unless you have an ulterior motive (perhaps selling your own books). As far as I know, it could go down regularly or it could be down forever? I've honestly never even heard of this site (which is down) which people are accusing me of stealing from. How can I steal from a website which has been down for days (judging by the cache)? I don't think it was even all that good that website because it was just a skeleton in the cache with no CSS. Probably not the most reliable site!

Pronouncer - June 24, 2018, 6:34 am community laert about his product <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5853468>

Including copy and paste proof

Techius - June 24, 2018, 6:43 am

Now duepi leaks things. This goes against the product TOS.

Also, his evidence is fake. He used a mobile template from Google and used paint and screenshot to put the methods into mobile resolution then paste it.

He can't actually link any gif evidence or use any links because there is no true evidence.

Do you have any rights or claims to this material? You can say it's your property if you created it (which I doubt you did) but good luck suing someone over the internet, also making a gmail that sounds like a law firm isn't going to trick anyone into thinking you have a lawyer.
