Thread: What was Prestige?

Omniscient - June 24, 2018, 8:44 pm

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2288745>

It's now removed from HF. With some changes to reputation and a points system on the way I felt the Prestige system was dated and no longer useful. It was a fun feature but it's time for something new.

Thanks to everyone who broke the Prestige formula.

Previously these sections had minimum Prestige requirements which may get altered to be based on reputation:

Science, Religion, Philosophy, and Politics
Innuendo
C Programming
Counter-Strike
Premium Sellers Section

Thank you.

Sad to see it go because Xerotic and I had fun solving it but it was never used for much.

vagabond - June 24, 2018, 8:47 pm

thank u for the update mr omniman

NoSuchAgency - June 24, 2018, 8:47 pm

Prestige was a great idea, though I see why it was dated. Just makes room for better things. :)

to prevent a lot of cs client leeches most likely

I never really understood the point of it other than just a point system. Hope you bring something awesome to replace it though, I know I've been negative but I'm just not a fan of change but I'm getting use to all of this! Don't hate me omni

PerfectStorm - June 24, 2018, 9:21 pm
Well Thank you for the update.

Prestige is over.

meister - June 24, 2018, 9:22 pm
Never really knew what it was meant for.

BeNT- - June 24, 2018, 9:27 pm
I understand the changes, and encourage them.

Problem is I am long time mature member here, and do comment appropriately. (save the odd drunkn Omni pm rant, thankfully still here)
I also give zero fuck about rep. So why am I being restricted where I post?

Edit: I don't do market, so I get that. Under current system as I understand innuendo peeps gonna get meaningless rep regardless. I do know C Rusty af, and the others, this makes no sense to me. Where I can contribute, I will but not based on rep.

Charger - June 24, 2018, 9:34 pm
Profile bit looks odd without it.

TB12 - June 24, 2018, 9:55 pm
I enjoyed the system but I fully understand the change

Upgraded members were/are exempt from prestige requirements in sections.

Seems like a pretty good call to me.
In general the changes seem like they will be beneficial to HF.

Thanks Omni and Xerotic for continued efforts in progressing HF.

Makaveli The Don - June 24, 2018, 11:28 pm
Oh yea, it was fun breaking the formula. Sad it's gone but for the better. Never got an award for it though. ?
Thanks for the update Omni.

oscast - June 24, 2018, 11:29 pm
Basing the entry of those sections on reputation shouldn't be a thing since rep is so easy to get so easy rep = easy leech

Probably a good idea as it was really just meaningless. I suppose the forum credits will replace this on postbit? Or maybe it's best to keep member's credit amount hidden.

Decim - June 25, 2018, 5:03 am

I agree that prestige had become trivial with the recent changes but I seriously hope the reputation requirement is going to be set to a minimum (must have positive reputation for example), and the chief criteria be account age and/or number of posts.

Personally, I used to like the pre-defined titles that would be given to users once they had reached a certain amount of posts - not sure whether this was an HF feature or on another forum.

so like

100 posts = Noob
300 posts = Skid
700 posts = Cracker
1500 posts = Beginner
2100 posts = technician

Something along those lines I guess but obviously, you'd have to come up with some better titles. Maybe if people are earning titles for posting they just see this as reason to shitpost in order to climb through the ranks though so could bite you in the arse I guess.

We have those if you don't use a custom usertitle. But those above examples are not HF usertitles we've used.

xitoxic - June 25, 2018, 10:06 am

Rip Prestige, I wonder what kind of point system is going to be introduced now

Wether you care or rep or not, the rest of the community will rep you based on your actions.

For example if your total rep is - , you're likely an asshole or troll and don't deserve to get access to other sections.

The fact that you care about rep or not doesn't really change that right?

And if you're a valuable member, wether you care about rep or not, you'll likely have plenty of it. It's just a reaction members have to posts.

The idea that no one cares about rep is BS. Look how everyone reacted when Omni restarted the rep points. But just a week before, the general consensus was that no one on the entire forum seemed to care about rep (supposedly). But it was just the cool thing to say.

mrnapolean1 - June 25, 2018, 1:07 pm

Postbit looks a bit more old school but Im sure the mad scientists Omni and Xerotic are working on something to replace it with.

Alex - June 25, 2018, 2:44 pm

Sad to see the prestige plugin go after all these years. But change is good and I can't wait to see the new points system!

webdev77 - June 25, 2018, 5:13 pm

It was a pretty fun little feature although admittedly not very relevant to anything. Times are a changin'.

funtela - June 27, 2018, 6:31 am

I never paid too much attention to it.

Can't wait to see what's in store this time. ?

Dood - June 29, 2018, 10:41 pm

Why was C programming gated? Am I missing something? C is a pretty common language, surely enough people understand it well that posts would generally be coherent?
