Firstly, there is nothing much to review here, it is subs, likes, as well as views. After you purchase it, you will receive it. Secondly, I am willing to give out 1 vouch copy to a trusted Ub3r member with a high post count. These prices are extremely reasonable though. If anyone is interested in purchasing any of the packages, please HMU!

Appreciate that. This was my first thread design, so was very interesting, that is why it is such a simple design in general. Never knew photoshop could be so damn complicated. Hope to improve on the design in the future! Everyone can feel free to hit me up if interested in youtube views/likes/subscriptions!

It's fine, you don't need anything fancy for social services, as long as your service is good, people will use you.

I actually meant to post this in premium sellers section. Closing this thread and moving it now!
