Alright.. a few months back i ordered a hacking service from this guy and long story short got scammed big time..

He won't answer to anything anymore so i don't think there will be a refund or anything so im just posting this to warn other users about his "service".

Skype Logs may be the most retarded and cringiest thing you will read today so be carefull about that lol..

It was two days ago.

You will never see your money again.
