Omniscient - June 25, 2018, 11:31 am

I finally had the time to setup the 4 new donation awards today.

You can purchase them here:

<https://hackforums.net/buyawards.php>

The awards are for Qtum, Waves, PivX, and Lisk donations. Pretty good looking awards imho. Each is for a $25 donation and can be gifted.

Thank you.

Charger - June 25, 2018, 11:34 am

I'll buy them later tonight.

Riyu - June 25, 2018, 11:34 am

Looks amazing.

I'll start saving to buy them all!

Lavish Living - June 25, 2018, 11:34 am nice addition, might make my whole next row a blueish theme (all altcoin awards)

SIM-3587630 - June 25, 2018, 11:49 am

They all look sick af to me.

I'll probably buy one of em later on.

Black Hat - June 25, 2018, 12:23 pm

I take it these are crypto related awards? The Qntm one looks pretty cool.

Bluffer - June 25, 2018, 12:33 pm

Great additions. These are more popular/known cryptos than some of the other ones previously imo.

Black Hat - June 25, 2018, 12:45 pm

Are these crypto's easy to mine, I wouldn't mind some of them awards.

Formant - June 25, 2018, 12:49 pm

That Lisk award is looking SPICY! Hopefully I'll pick it up sooner rather than later ;)

Easiest thing to do would be to get some BTC and exchange it for the crypto you want

You'll be waiting much longer then. Don't know why you're so opposed to just simply exchanging BTC but its your choice ?

Vince - June 25, 2018, 1:07 pm

Wish I would of gotten into crypto back then to at least get the awards.

Eh, its whatever. I'll attempt to earn some non buy-able ones.

Cameron - June 25, 2018, 2:17 pm

Wish I hadn't got most of my awards removed. These awards look slick.

Meow - June 25, 2018, 2:27 pm

Quote:got error when i try buy these awards. "No payment options available!" ?

Was it PivX because the wallet is under maintenance, try later.

Ivex - June 26, 2018, 10:22 am

Awesome additions. Could you add Stellar Lumens (XLM) sometime in the future please? It would look cool as their icon is a rocket ship and it's a cool currency too with potential. :)

Tesla - June 26, 2018, 10:22 am

God damn these are sexy af, gonna have to buy them soon :)

Omniscient - June 26, 2018, 10:43 am

PivX is live again, for the moment.

Quote:Could you add Stellar Lumens (XLM) sometime in the future please?

Since Coinpayments is our alt-coin payment processor we have to rely on their choices and XLM is not yet supported.

Hailstone - June 26, 2018, 10:54 am

Is there a limit on how many of the same awards you can buy? I see some members have a few of the same ones

Horus God - June 26, 2018, 11:00 am

is there way i can buy them via btc ? let me know

Classy Barry - June 26, 2018, 11:15 am

Omniscient - June 26, 2018, 11:23 am

You can only have one of each of these awards on your account. That's how most awards are with rare exemptions.

Blazin - June 26, 2018, 3:22 pm

I bought the Qtum Umm payment confirmed by hf. Hopefully it's added soon.

MentorPEN - June 26, 2018, 3:43 pm

Love the new ones! Someone good enough to donate me one, but on topic, they are sick! I might get one. Need some cash ATM!

Blazin - June 26, 2018, 7:36 pm

I been using Gdax for most of my exchanges.

Anyone have a good recommendation for an exchange here in the U.S.

I'll get all of these in one shot if there is an exchange that is trustworthy.

Binance is probably one of the best options even for Americans.

Never understood why people would want to pay $25 for an extra pixel on their profile

Care to explain?

And please not the "they just want to support the forum" shit :D

Some of us actually do support the forum. I didn't drop several-tens of thousands of dollars for pixels. Some people do it because the more awards they have might make them seem more trustworthy, or it just compliments their profile.

The forum is free to use.

If nobody donated the forum would cease to exist. Instead of posting useless shit just take a minute to think about it.

Some users are nice and some only care about themselves, clearly.

I guess I can understand it from a seller point of view, to seem trustworthy in the eye of the client.

Blazin - July 1, 2018, 7:53 pm

HEXAGON - July 1, 2018, 9:37 pm
