If you're starting from scratch, it usually speeds up after 1k, then again around 50k, and they pretty much skyrocket after 100k.

Personal accounts tend to have some of the best engagement. More engagement = more traffic.

Finally started doing a bit of actual growing with some some powerlikes he's giving me for free for a trial. Just posted something and got this <https://imgur.com/gallery/a7VfG3c> within a couple minutes so it's got a good start so far. Took a bit longer for me than I expected to start but I should begin actually growing today. Will keep you updated.

Okay, so where do I begin. I have just recently become friends with RAGNAR. He was referred to me, because I needed help with social media. I was having problem with losing followers and other stuff like that.

I desperately needed mentorship. The amount of things that RAGNAR taught me in the course of 15 minutes was mind-boggling. He has such a cache of knowledge when it comes to social media, it's insane. What this man taught me is going to help me make an extra easy thousand dollars or two thousand maybe, just off a few basic key details and other information.

I can't vouch for this guy enough, he's the fucking man and just helped me make a shit ton of money for absolutely free. (well, like $15, but still)... whatever he is offering in the complete package has to be insane. He has shown me profiles that he has operated that I've personally seen... What I'm basically saying is that this guy is everywhere on the internet, somehow. It seems like he runs it, lmao.

Just for my understanding, will this explain to me how I can grow IG accounts fast without having to create original content myself?

I want to grow an account or multiple accounts but want to use posts/pictures I find online or from others on IG or other social media platforms.

Of course, I'd love to work with photoshop etc. but I won't be shooting the pictures myself.

Will you teach me that or is this course not focused around that kind of content sharing?

Day 1-3: This was me not posting ANY new photos on my Instagram. I didn't have access to my actual iPhone as it was being fixed, so all my photos were not obtainable. These are my account interactions with no activity on my end.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

About a week in: These statistics were from 3 posts I had uploaded to Instagram, all with insane amounts of activity due to Ragnar's services.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Ragnar allowed me to hit a pretty insane milestone here. 6,000 followers. I started this at about 5,000 followers. So you may be thinking he states "0-100k" in 1 month. That usually works best with niche accounts, the thing with me is that I am growing my PERSONAL IG. So it's a bit harder but I am growing at a rapid pace for a personal Instagram. Without his services at where I currently stand, I receive about 15+ comments a day, 80-100 likes across all photos, and minimum of 100 followers a day. I've learned to send the users from my personal snapchat to my instagram, and vice versa. Allowing me to grow bigger and more naturally.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Only bigger and better from here on out, and I wouldn't have been able to do this without him. Thank you Ragnar, and I urge everyone to use these services. If you have any questions or want proof, you're most welcome to PM me with whatever questions you have.

Sorry for the delay. As for my update: Ragnar was AFK for a decent while due to IRL reasons but has since come back and compensated for his being away and set everything right. With his leaving I originally gave lost motivation due to thinking he was just gone, but have since started back up and am doing better than ever. My accounts not big or anything currently due to unfortunate bouts of inactivity after just getting started growing the account, but I'm working on it now with high hopes for the future. Thanks!

Mad Hatter - August 9, 2018, 2:48 pm

I bought 5,000 followers from Ragnar that were supposed to be high quality. Upon purchasing I noticed that they were mostly from India/Pakistan/Low-Quality countries. We discussed that I wanted all of them to be from the U.S. Also, after a very short time the followers started dropping in like 4 days I lost all of the 5,000 followers. I contacted Ragnar and he sent another 5,000 and again they all dropped very quickly. I've contacted him several times now asking him to give me high-quality followers that will not drop and haven't gotten a reply. I would not recommend doing business with Ragnar.

Keeping this comment here until the problem is fixed.

To update my previous post. Ragnar got back to me and we setup to talk around 1-2pm today. There doesn't seem to be a huge direction of the mentorship. I thought he would have a guide to go off of and respond on time. Responses are minimum 5 minutes and average around 20-30 minutes each response. This is also at our scheduled time. Before, he takes hours to respond. Maybe even a day. To say the least I am not happy with this service. Maybe he's busy, I don't know. I could have my whole day booked with meetings and I'd still be able to manage to respond quicker. Our session today was unsuccessful.

I never said we were limited to certain time sessions. I'm usually on all day and I'll always respond. I have students who I exchange dozens of messages daily with at random times. If you need the sessions to be at certain times, I can do that as well. I had only mentioned to you when I'd be available, not that I'm limited to that time.

You won't get refunded mate. The guy is exit scamming most likely, he used to be trusted, but now I see he doesn't care about his customers.

On his insta posting stories #makingmoneymoves so I guess this is the way lol.

I will wait a little more and then will open a deal dispute.
