Thread: Looking for someone who wants to run a LONG time factions server

WtfBits - June 25, 2018, 10:58 pm

Updating this thread due to drama with the first person to PM me lol.

I have a friend who owns a datacenter which he allowed me to use one of his boxes for a minecraft server. It has multicraft already installed.

Specs of the server:

e5-1620 v3

64gb DDR4

SSD SAS 1GB Port (950 upload/download)

I will have this server for lifetime which means server cost will be negated so we can spend time on focusing on the server. Because of recent events with a user here I am going to keep this short. I am looking for someone who can build a server from scratch. This is going to be a long run project which I myself will handle bringing in many players. If things go as plan and server is set we can talk about split profits once players start joining the server.

Update I cant reply to pms anymore until my post is up so leave your discord please i can do anything and am dedicated enough until $$ coming lmk , and how much profit we talking here ?

Jimmie - June 25, 2018, 11:01 pm

I was the owner of Lordsworld pvp we had 300-400 members online at all times in 2012 I'm interested send me a message with details.

I can do professional seo work which is how I got all of my members to begin with and I can fully setup a server no coding tho.

Sure do you have a discord?

Jimmie - June 25, 2018, 11:31 pm

This guy is really sketchy I would avoid dealing with him he wouldn't answer anything I asked I'm sure he just wants someone to setup a server for free.

For whatever reason he wouldn't tell me his discord also and made me give him mine first.

For whatever reason he wouldn't tell me his discord also and made me give him mine first. Clear things up he wouldn't give me his discord and made an excuse that he cant see his discord tag.

Anywho he wanted the information on the streamers I was working with which for obvious reasons I decided not to disclose it and all he did was boast he was a top server owner. Typical for someone like you to get upset.

I am looking for someone who wants to partner up in making a server that is very clear. I have server cost always handled. End of story.

The new updated discord doesn't show tags.. and I sent you my discord after I found it in a old private message.

And if I wasn't willing to partner up I wouldn't have messaged you.

Ok you confirmed from your end you cant see it but all you do is click the settings. Anywho if any1 wants to read the chat logs i posted it.

CyberError - June 25, 2018, 11:46 pm

just tell me estimated profit rolling in , and am ready

Basstracer - June 25, 2018, 11:47 pm

Personally, I can setup all plugins, etc. Specialise in group manager or PEX. Can also setup faction plugin. What plugin are you using btw?

Feel free to add me on discord @basstracerrr#5540

What does the chat logs have to do anything? I told you I do professional seo work and can get you members and I have a top ranked planetminecraft ad? Not a single person is going to work with you with these so called professional streamers you have.

I was just giving chat logs for people to see how our conversation went.

Anywho I don't care about you being top ranked etc. As for getting players I have that already handled.

Sure people wont work with me but there are people who will.

What is the issue then? I never asked you for money and was willing to work with you? I even told you I can fully setup a server?

The issue was I dont want to disclose the names of the streamer I was working with but you wanted to know it.

Its ok I will find someone else
Good luck sir.

Feel free to add me on Discord. It's been awhile since I've worked with plugin setups, but I can pick up on it again easily. AveryC03#9885
