Thread: Anybody else feeling tired?

CoLDarkness - June 26, 2018, 3:39 pm

been spending the last 6 months doing shit and i kinda made it, but now i feel stuck because it's a new season and ofc we have to switch up our methods / visions anybody else?

N - June 26, 2018, 3:40 pm

What did you make? What new season and what methods OP?

Ivex - June 26, 2018, 3:40 pm

I get you. Just take like a few days just to do some random fun shit then come back with a focused mind set and a plan of what you wanna get done. I took a week off drinking out mostly haha but now I'm back and focused.

I live in an eternal state of feeling tired unless I get 12 hours of sleep. It's not possible to catch up on sleep according to science, but it still feels good to get a nice long rest in.

That's true, when I come off my night shift no matter how much I sleep I still feel fatigued as fuck.

Just drink tons of 5 hour energy and red bulls. Or do what I do... butt chug cocaine. Really gets the blood pumping.

I never understood coke, it's so fucking expensive and it lasts like 15 minutes right? I've never tried it tho

Mmm yea, the only problem is all the sugar, and the sugar-free ones just don't taste the same...

Yeah it's pretty pricey and if it's good shit it'll last way longer than 15 min. I'm actually just pissing around with the coke jokes. I'm definitely a pothead through and through but I dabble in the more expensive commodities occasionally.

Pretty much the same here, I have a dabble of coke on the most commemorative of occasions and I am a self-confessed devil's lettuce connoisseur.

Oddly I have never tried weed, only use harder stuff like opiates

I guess the smoking thing is just a real turnoff for me

Apocryphon - June 26, 2018, 6:00 pm

I feel tired af aswell. Not sure why.

B FOR BADASS - June 26, 2018, 6:54 pm

Yes, I am tired. Came after 2 hours of walk. Legs pain a lot. Thanks

Aurora - June 26, 2018, 9:27 pm

Drink lots of water. Sleep early. Get plenty of rest.

That should fix most of the problem.
