Okay, so I found his skype username on his HF thread, and I added him on skype.

Did 3-4 deals with him, until yesterday, when he fucked up.

I paid him $44PP in return for BTC exchange, which apparently so, I won't be getting back!

I believe that's what he does to other people, not replying, and not paying them back!

Deserves all our negative gratitude, this fucker!

I still hope though, that he'll pay me back because he was nice until he wasn't a complete fucking asshole.

Did you confirm the deal(s) on-site and used contract?

check this out. he says he wouldn't get on HF. I see that his reputation is 0 too, so i figure he didn't after the policy and the system change.

I hope he's not. But sadly so, it looks like he is.

He turned up today and cleared the payment!
