GrandpaSherman - July 23, 2018, 12:19 pm

Looks like you just vectorized an image in Illustrator

Chaunzie - July 23, 2018, 2:49 pm

(Jul 23, 2018 12:19 PM)GrandpaSherman Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Looks like you just vectorized an image in Illustrator

Lol I feel you; it's all photoshop.

Only tools I used were the color dropper tool, paintbrush, & erase tool.

If I had used illustrator it would take me 40 minutes to complete a whole portrait.

Don't get me wrong; I would use it Al more if I was advanced but I'm still trying to understand the fundamentals of photoshop first.

All sketches I've done are within a 2-4 hours distance (not including breaks)

It's mostly because I like distinguishing between an artist's perspective & adding it into my art while grasping my perspective as well.

To you; it looks like a simple tracing.

To me; it's a masterpiece of emotions.

Chaunzie - July 30, 2018, 12:03 am

Thanks for all of your loving messages with my art!

No; just wanted to draw them in honor of their dead.

Made me feel like they were still alive when I was created it.
