Just submitted my application. Loved the format that you went with for this application. It keeps us all true to ourselves without comparing it to anyone else.

I really like this application. It's different than the rest and it's honestly easier than a simple MyBB form.

Hmm, did you use Grammarly or something? Seems like some vocabulary-enhancing tool replaced "looking" with "seeking".

Meh, useful for improving your writing skills. ?

Thank you for applying. Interested in your application. :)

Vince - July 8, 2018, 9:43 pm

Applied. Figured I'd give it a shot to try a Writer again. Highly doubtful I'll be accepted, but attempted it anyways.
