Thread: Free boost for a low bronze account.

Quick Maths - July 2, 2018, 3:40 pm

Pretty bored of playing in diamond and wouldn't mind helping out someone if they want it.

Even though I'd never think about taking accounts from hack forums members, just make sure that you have your email verified and you're not using a password that you commonly use, and I'll help you out.

I'm looking for bronze 3-5 accounts, because that's where the fun is, no other way to say it to be honest. I'll show you proof of my rank if you want, and I also don't mind coaching people just to add that.

Pm me for further details.

edit: I should also add that this is for NA.

edit 2: Don't mind helping out people who are silver as well, just contact me.

If you are interested in earning money with boosting accounts, let me know. Only if you've reached Master or higher though. Got loads of customers, so can always use other boosters to help me :)

Only d5 trash currently, sorry ? . Planning on climbing but I don't know if I'd hit masters. I'd really have to become more consistent.

Thanks for the offer :).

Still looking to help people out. Don't mind if you're silver 5-3, just prefer bronze accounts.

Been meaning to play a lot lately but can't find the time really.
I'll message you.

Honestly, as a diamond player, bronze 5 to silver 1 is pretty fun too.

Yeah I don't mind silver what so ever, it's what I'm doing currently.

But I haven't played in bronze 5-3 in years, and it was always super fun to help people out down there as well.

As someone who had the chance to play drunk on a bronze 3 low MMR account, I felt like it was harder to lose than to win. You can literally run it down mid as soraka and still win the game. I have an account for you, I think it's bronze 3 right now, but I'd rather not want it to be out of bronze. You can int on it a few games though, I don't mind. Just not down for a boost lol. Gotta keep that shit low elo u know yeah I wouldn't mind that, I could just lose the promo games if I ever got there.

Probably practice dumb shit.

Pm me if you'd like :~)

Thanks!
