Hailstone - July 2, 2018, 6:14 pm

I helped get a multi accounting scammer closed on here and he said this

<http://prntscr.com/k1tyra>

I'm low key freaking the fuck out and really worried for my safety during the raid. How do I diffuse this situation?

Enronitis - July 2, 2018, 6:17 pm

Who cares.

Save that info, and proof of him saying it.

Give it to the cops.

You'll be fine.

Sir-Teabag - July 2, 2018, 6:18 pm

if he says he's going to do it he either will or he won't and you don't have control over that. Block him and he'll get bored and fuck off. done.

NoSuchAgency - July 2, 2018, 6:18 pm

Yeah I would just show that to the police so just in case they don't bust down your door

UpTheCrust - July 2, 2018, 6:29 pm

Does he have your address and stuff?

BOBBY TARANTINO - July 2, 2018, 6:30 pm

He's just trying to scare you homie, if he would then he wouldn't just straight up tell you

henry - July 2, 2018, 6:32 pm

Save chat logs, worst case file a police report and they'll handle the rest.

Right. You can just show the police that pic you posted and they will calm down really fast. He wouldn't say this shit if he was actually going to do it.

Hailstone - July 2, 2018, 6:36 pm

thanks guys, if someone wants to help get his current account banned please pm me.

Prepper - July 2, 2018, 6:43 pm

If someone is threatening to SWAT you call the police department inform them give them your address and other information they ask for that way they know it is a fake call however they will still probably send a few officers to check up on things if they do receive a SWAT call.

Additionally provide as much information you can to the police of the person who threatened to swat you.

Still best to provide every detail to the police it will help them identify if it is the swat call or not.

I'm curious to know what you did. I doubt whatever it was it's not going to keep him from coming back and scamming people unfortunately :/

Brill - July 2, 2018, 7:37 pm

he probably wont do shit. i dont know anyone dumb enough to let you know before hand. call your local police dept. and they will be able to help you from there. save the chat logs and you'll be fine. SWAT charges aren't a joke nowadays

Even if its coming from a foreign country?

Brill - July 2, 2018, 7:50 pm

(Jul 2, 2018 07:39 PM)Chudd Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Even if its coming from a foreign country?depends if the country is a part of the 5 eyes and if he is already known for swatting. if he's done this to multiple people i know there has been a few cases where the feds have worked with other intelligence agencies to take down people who swat.

it's such a childish game to play, it's time people grew some brains.

Niko - July 2, 2018, 7:52 pm

Does he have your address and shit? If so and you think he is going to go through with it, feel free to call your local police station and warn them about it.

Bluffer - July 2, 2018, 7:53 pm

If this happened to me here's what I'd do:

1) Save the conversation

2) Call non-emergency and explain that I'm receiving a threat online to be swatted.

(Jul 2, 2018 07:39 PM)Chudd Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Even if its coming from a foreign country?

I'm in Canada and I've heard of Canadians getting in trouble for swatting schools in the US.

If it's serious enough or especially if somebody gets hurt in the process, yes they will be caught even in a foreign country as long as they have some kind of extradition with the US.

Compulsive - July 2, 2018, 7:57 pm

DENIZ - July 3, 2018, 3:22 am

Just save the logs and inform your local police about this, but I doubt that it's going to happen.
