Hey, so I have a lot of spare time now lately, and I'm more interested in the sales area. So if you need a sales partner, please let me know!

I am interested in selling your products, no matter what product it is I will get it sold! Contact me with some more information!

My skills:

- Negotiation
- Persuasion
- Service Orientation
- Social Perceptiveness
- Sales
- Communication
- And much more

Please get in touch with me down here or in PM!

Hey man, I'm good at spreading, if you can find someone willing to create the software to grab the unused info, I'll spread it and you can sell it. Get a little triple partnership going on maybe?
