Gotta say at first using this service about a week or two ago I was skeptical - first order was a big order of $100 worth of food regardless. Since then I've been ordering and using this service since almost every day it's available, sometimes two times a day. I recommend this if you're stuck at home and need some food.

How actuate are the wait times on the Door Dash website? A lot of the places on there say 40-50 mins for me (I'm in New York).

I'd cut about 10 minutes off to be safe. I get estimated wait times that are 30-40 minute wait times in the LA area and I usually get it in 25-30 minutes depending on the location. I think the first time a wait time has been accurate for me was yesterday, but that was only due to the lady stopping to get groceries on her way over lol. Its really mostly dependent on the wait time of the place. Like if I get chipotle (which gets food done fast) its usually 25ish minutes. If I order from a restaurant like BJs then its like 30-35 minutes maybe more if theyre busy and there is traffic in the area.

The internet at the hotel is extremely shit. Delays between responses are mostly due to internet/being out of town or timezone differences. If you are not immediately answered, I apologize and am sure everything will corrected soon enough ?. Normally response times when open are ~10 minutes if not instant.

Our methods are probably different but the method I use involves promo codes and it's unpatchable by design unless they can the promo code system which is never happening, theres a way to get access to the promo code ML(Master List) which they swap out every couple months with fresh promo codes but just touching on this method in case your using it, it's a private method of mine and iv'e been using it occasionally. The best part is it can be automated with a sock puppet farm to use them infinite times. It's the only known white hat method I know of not involving carding since your just abusing the fact that the ML can be accessed, but it does fall under SE in a way. It's essentially infinite discounted food since the best ones are the free delivery and discount codes.

We actually only Offer USA. Because we are the only ones doing it Legally and Safetly using Referrals..

Only reason other services offer other countries is due to them USING CRACKED ACCOUNTS AND JUST USING THE CREDIT CARD ON THE ACCOUNTS.

VOUCH: ? ? ? ?

Freddy is the real thing. You message on skype--you give your address, and the restaurant and order of what you want (screenshots help a lot), you do a little transaction--then you get notified in chat of the order being picked up and when its at your house. ?

I was really excited to see this available on HF, so I kinda went out of my way and got two double burgers and two large fries. At the discount I wanted it to be fun. I would really not consider this kind of meal for myself on a regular day. Now I have to. And tomorrow, I'm probably hooked.

Totally legit experience. Changed my life forever. ?

Almost 0 chance sir. I have been using it everyday since February on two addresses (home and school) and have never had it happen. The problem with most services unlike ours is that they use cracked accounts that use someone elses credit card to fulfill orders. We DO NOT condone that activity and it is the reason that people get blacklisted. This is not the case with our service as we use referral credits to fulfill orders. A completely white hat method. You can see the proof of this on the main thread :).

It kindve depends on scheduling. Typically around 5 MDT/MST the skype and telegram are open. Also, I try to post daily to let everyone know when they're open as well.

Please do not message ANY of us about becoming "Partners".

I can't stress this enough but, The orders are done by a single individual that doesn't want to be involved with any other Services or Doordash "Partners".

Now that that's over, Hit the Telegram or Skype up, DoorDash is Open
