Thread: Was going through my phone and noticed I have Black Shadow's number in it

Black Hat - July 10, 2018, 8:09 am

Not sure if any of you remember this user, we became somewhat good friends after a few days of talking we realized that we actually lived not far from each other.

From reflecting on our skype conversations he actually believed that he was one day going to crack the bust a bit algorithm, he even tried to sell me his method over and over again even though I thought because we were friends at this point, he would give me it for free, which he never - I had to actually tell him I have given up on gambling just to try to get him to refrain from trying to sell me his method again - but he kept asking me to buy it so I just pretty much lost interest in him.

He told me a lot of stuff about his personal life which it wouldn't be very fair for me to share with you i.e. drug addiction, prison, and his health.

Anyway, I can't even seem to find his user when I search for it on HF.

What happened to Black Shadow, one of the most highly repped HF members of all time?

That's something black shadow would probably do but no I am not black shadow I can assure you.

yeah i don't think you're black shadow because you'd probably be banned by now but in all honesty i don't even know who he is or what he did.

He was a baldy headed snake oil salesperson that people either loved or hated.

what exactly did he sell then?
because he seems to be made out as a bad person but he had the most reputation?
doesn't really make sense to me.

FryPan - July 10, 2018, 8:18 am

That guy isn't going to make it very far.

He put his full effort into creating his online HackForums persona, that acquired relevancy for a couple of his golden years. Sadly, that's all dissipated into nothingness.

Wouldn't be surprised if the guy is depressed as fuck lol.

Apocryphon - July 10, 2018, 8:19 am

How come you know about him when you joined last month?

this user said that they was previously on site but lost access to their account worst comes to worst they would have been closed so i think we're safe.

I mean you never know I could actually be Black Shadow, but then again so could you ?

RainSpider3000 - July 10, 2018, 10:17 am

This is how most users have always used Hack Forums... You end up becoming really popular, but then you stop liking Hack Forums eventually, so instead of deleting your account, people apparently just do exit scams to make some money while quitting the forums.

Blackshadow lives close to me. I see him sometimes in the markets trying to sell giant trouts for bitcoin. Sometimes he is nude.
