Hey HF,

This thread is is not a scam report but is a community warning.

Horus profile:

Thread of services

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5752465>

Basically what happened is I bought his Lifetime Adobe account and he upgraded my account, but after a week it was expired. I have been contacting Horus for awhile now to see if he could replace it or at least give me a refund ($15). I have tried to get in contact with him multiple times the guy even rep'd me so I know he's active

Proof of payment

This is not a scam report, I am just letting the community know about my experience with this seller.

You can vouch for him but at the end of the day you got your working adobe account while i'm over here making a thread about me not getting what I paid for.

If anything this shoudlve been a deal dispute. But i presume you didnt use a contract.

Horus is a calm fella, just leave a message on his thread and he always get back to people, if you call him shit and stuff dont expect a responce.

Im just saying thats how you get things resolved. Making a community alert is almost a guaranteed way, to be blocklisted from a bunch of sellers and not get your money back

A seller blocking me would be dumb as I am very legit and don't mind going first if everything sounds right, a legit seller doesn't have to worry about negative threads cause they don't ignore buyers. This isn't going anywhere, I will close this thread once I get a reply from him.
