So I have a friend who is a very good musician and he is looking to upload his songs on a few legit platforms. How can he go about this? PM if you can help.

Do you have a good link for an apple music one?

Google is your best friend.

Indeed but they are all a bit pricey for him. I'm well aware of some companies that will do it for a yearly fee. If i'm not mistaken some people on HF were offering the service a while back. Thanks for your help none the less.
